FINES RESULT IN BIG LOSS TO CITY MERCHANTS

Work has been abandoned on the construction of the new armory until spring. Lack of funds makes the completion of the building impossible at this time. The exterior is now nearly complete and the interior is nearly ready for occupancy, but the main court is entirely enclosed. The heating equipment will not be installed this fall, and the building will not be used until spring.

If sufficient funds are gathered by the state legislature, the building will not be completed as planned and the front will be left off. An appropriation of $35,000 was made by the legislature for the construction of the building, but owing to increased wages and higher prices, the project is now over $20,000 over the amount as approved by the legislature. Without this federal court cannot be used for trial, and the state rooms cannot be used as the roads over the new York and Iowa will be finished.

There is a possibility of eight games next fall and the coaches of all the teams, including Coach Jones, who represents Iowa, are for the reduction of the game. Opinion of Coach Yost of Michigan is that there is no chance of the game being played.

INDIAN GAEKWAR EXTENDS INVITATION TO STUDENTS OF IOWA

Doctor Sudhindra Bose, former lecturer in the department of politi­cal science at the University of Cal­cutta in India, is currently touring the United States. His visit is sponsored by the Iowa State University and is expected to last for several weeks. During his stay, Doctor Bose will give lectures and participate in various academic activities. His talks are likely to focus on modern political science, with particular emphasis on the role of Western nations in the world. His insights on these topics are expected to enrich the cultural and intellectual life of the university community.

Students are encouraged to attend these lectures and engage with Doctor Bose to gain a deeper understanding of global politics and current events.
