W HA SEY R S CAMPaign Open until Next Week

The subscription of the 1012 Hawkeyes will be continued until noon today. The principal, Mr. A. D. R. E. Waterman, business manager of the paper, has progressed slowly, especially in the last few days, and thousands of subscriptions have been placed. Mr. E. A. D. W. A. Waterman informed the editor that several extra copies would be ready for the reading public as soon as the strike is over and that many subscriptions to the individual papers will be discontinued when they are ready for delivery in the spring.

SCHOOL WEEK TO BE HELD
Special Observation of Education Week begins December 5

December 5 to 11 has been set aside as "school week," according to a letter sent out by the bureau of the department of the trustee at Washington, D.C. During this week all schools, churches, clubs and other institutions and organizations are encouraged to give particular attention to educational topics.

The week will be especially observed by high schools where special programs are to be given and students are to be informed of the different educational institutions in their own state and the scope that are being taken to improve them.

PHI DELTA KAPPA ENTERTAIN
Russell Honored by Banquet Before Vacation

Phi Delta Kappa, national honorary educational organization for men, held its banquet last night in honor of Dean William F. Russell, president of the college of education.

Superintendent Russell of the Iowa City schools served as toastmaster. The response to toasts were as follows:
"For the Honor," G. H. Allerman, superintendent of the schools at Denison.
"From the Superintendent," Dr. Frederick T. Knight, of the college of education.
"From the Railcar," Ralph Noyer (of Kansas City). "From the Outpost," O. G. Klingman, director of the municipal department; and "The Dean from the Inside," Dean Russell.

After the banquet, three men were initiated into the organization, C. R. Trowbridge of Bernard, North Carolina; Paul McKeen (of Canton, Ill.); and Don Rogers, (of Little Rock, Iowa.

All graduates in education of the institution and their owners were congratulated for degrees this year by Mr. Trowbridge for his.

Three weeks ago the organization was entertained at a dinner of the chapter in Iowa City at the home of Prof. Frank C. Ensign. At this time William Loyd, President of Gommes, and Wm. Bock of the Iowa City schools were initiated.

"Never the less, I would rather eat at the Jefferson Coffee Shop than I can see what I'm getting before it's served."
