OCCASIONALLY it would seem that the student is to report a rank-trou­ bourous person who applies indignities without the least pretense of being justified by the facts of the case. It is as though he wanted to turn a page and nuding over to something new.

A Letter to the Students:

The Bon Ton only advertises what has something real interest to the Patrons. Any other advertising would be a waste of money and would result in an increase in our cost of sales which in turn would make an increase in our selling price to you. Some on exert pay the printer. You would not find any "Leaders" at the Bon Ton as we aim to carry a well balanced Bill of Fare with prices that net up a reasonable profit. We make you the offer of making it a more exclusive affair, and will not close enrollment for camp

FORMER IOWA MAN GAINS PROMINENCE IN NEW YORK CITY

Dr. Norris A. Brouns’s work as dean of New York University’s new school of electronics was the subject of an article which appeared in the New York World on January 6. Dr. Brouns was formerly head of the department of economics at the University, holding that position from 1893 up to last year when he resigned to accept the present position as dean of the school of electronics at New York University.

A million dollar endowment fund has been planned for this school and several of the more prominent New Yorkers are among its subscribers to the fund. Training offered in this school will prepare not only radio merchants, but radio investigators, advertising managers and writers, who draw salaries, designers, editors, salesmen, scientific directors, floor managers, and other positions in retail and department stores. Each course will have an advisory committee chosen from experts in that particular field. Men actively engaged in the course will deliver special lectures on practical aspects of the work.
