MAVIE ST A INC BROM TH Drulture: MAYBE THEY WILL INTERFERENCE WITH TRADITIONAL TRAGEDY METHODS: MAYBE THEY'LL STOP FLORIS'S BILLS.

What are they? Why are they? Where do they come from? No one seems to know—certainly not the artists who are now painting them. These mysterious looking objects—artefacts we cannot identify—appear to be found in the women's houses and are very recent. Really, you should notice them two pressures that is what they are! They are so extraordinary looking. They are raw, probably of a new variety, because they have been displayed in a navigator near of your eye. You will never realize until you see—there how wonderful nature really is.

In has been regretted that Santa Claus brought them with him from his first team against a freshman opponent this past Christmas. It seems as though the young people of the state are going to appear Christmas time. If so, all World theatre certainly plays a huge joke on the women. Santa Claus couldn't help it. He had to come, for he knows that the women need him. But the question is, should the girls interpret that as a moral one? They should wear them on the roof? If that is the case the men will have a chance advantage of the suggestion and make one bouquet serve for all formulas and every "snow-flowers" evening of the year.

And they are quite impressive, too. For instance, in the center of the room of smoke and aroma, we notice that the bright fair young creatures "true alike at heart, not only, but imitated, display the most beautiful face on the world with the most beautiful fires". It would also seem that when the young people are asked to appear in the blossoms of their fragrant order, it will, instead of violating beautiful principle that they have been taught, rather gain a name of credit, with bands of musical, of dances, of flowers, of frockery, money dress, and working, and being appreciated for the showtimes, and the pompous wearer, again, would be unfortunate.

TO THE PEOPLE OF IOWA CITY

Mr. David Warde Griffith, producer of “Way Down East,” has completed arrangements whereby he will present the production of the greatest motion picture ever to be shown here for these six weeks in Minneapolis and two weeks in St. Paul. The Griffith elaboration of the Lottie Blair story is yet showing.

In his treatment of “Way Down East,” Mr. Griffith has EVOLVED A NEW ART, it is a new combination of painting, play and story so tenderly interwoven into a fabric absolutely new in the annals of theatrical history.

This newer art form marking music with its other attributes is the sensation of the present season in New York City as it is now playing wondrously to THE LARGEST NUMBER OF PEOPLE EVER ATTRADED TO A THEATRE. This wonderful production was first shown in New York on September 3rd and at this season’s New York run has been extended for six weeks nearly every RECOGNIZED THOUSAND people.

Immediately following the great New York success runs were arranged for Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles. The success of the production has been a complete surprise to the management, which has sold out the entire engagement in all the cities. The company or rather the presenting organization that will offer "WAY DOWN EAST" in Iowa City is one that was sent especially from New York City to appear in Minneapolis and St. Paul. The Griffith elaborate of the Lottie Blair story was kept for four more weeks in New York to attract the world-wide attention which the production has received there and in the Pacific Coast the dramatic sensation attracted in the six weeks nearly 50,000 RECOGNIZED THOUSAND people.

The main reason from all the other mentioned shows is that NO THEATRICAL ATTRACTION EVERREW SUCH FRAME or attracted such crowds as daily pack the theatres where "WAY DOWN EAST" has been shown and is yet showing.

These details butt illustrating to you the standing of the offering and have come out to you that this is in THE GREATEST SPEC TACLE EVER SEEN ON LAND OR SEA.

We shall not attempt to describe its wonderful beauty, its dramatic power or its overwhelming appeal but prefer rather to put the record before you as it has been written to date and leave the rest to your imagination.

Wolfe Shrewdly, writing in a magazine, says, "MR. GRIFFITH HAS CREATED A NEW ART." This writer last standards of recognition and makes it so strong that you see "Way Down East" to properly estimate the wonder that the producer has achieved.

The special arrangements for the head engagement carry Mr. Griffith’s assurance that “Way Down East” will be offered here with the same care for details that have already marked it as one of the greatest productions of the screen. Another important item is the REGULAR HOUSE SCALE FOR DRA MATIC STAGE PRODUCTIONS WILL BE CHARGED FOR ALL RUN. The prices for night performances will be from 50 cents to $1.25 and for the two matinees from 25 cents to 35 cents. The presenting organization promises more than thoroughly experts, including a travelling symphony orchestra, with the head appearance of the many great names of the stage and screen. The evening performances will be offered under the direction of the Hawkeye Players of New York, and also recently securing a chair in music at Columbia University.

THE IOWA LUNCH ROOM
"Just around the corner from the Intersection."

By Eagle Eyes

Walter Whitcombe will be the attract-on at the Keystone to-morrow (Monday) evening, at which time he will be seen in the complex character of James Duris, the hero-hero of Robert Louis Stevenson’s immortal story, “The Master of Ballantrae.”

Carl Bacon, a New dramatist, made the adaptation of the Stevenson novel two years ago, and the play has proved to be Walter Whitcombe’s greatest success. The author is the
of a handsome young adventurer; a one time soldier, physician, fighter of Indians, student of Indian ways, and gun blaster at the fast French event in Paris. All of Steven’s powerfully drawn characters, to be found in the original tale, have been made use of in the play,and lovers of Stevenson will see in flesh and blood such individuals as Mr. MacPherson the old Scottish steward of the Ballantrae estate; Lord Duris and his two sons, James and Henry; the dashing Colonel Burke, and the mysterious Hindu, Secundra Dais; lovely Alison Grant, the heroine and sister James from thecoutant; and amusing John Paul, the household of Castle Durridge, a grand cast of New York players and as Impenting stage inventors will make Walter Whitcombe’s presentation of “The Master of Ballantrae” one of the signal events of the New Year.
