FOXTROT AT A FORMAL BALL.

FANFARE.

I read the story over and over. Each time with more seriousness ever. Till at last the story sank to the bottom of my mind. Like a closed out of the able.

Poor Pan,-she sat in the gallery, looked out over the throng. And as she looked, he wondered and her heart broke. And she guessed just what was wrong.

It is true, Pan, diamonds were lacking.

And a "hump-back" could rule one sea, your breath, in truth.

Of course experience has taught them. And Pan, although you may smile, they are satisfied, contented, and happy.

Thousands of men and women serve this University every year and are never heard of again. The College is having its say right now.

My dear Mr. Griffith:
I have for the second time seen your picture.
Any personal praise of yourself or your acting regarding the picture I would naturally consider redundant and a little like carrying coals to Newcastle.
Anyway, I imagine you are so used to it that it would only bore you to death.
I have not the honor of knowing Miss Gish personally and I am afraid that any expression of feeling addressed to her she might consider impertinent. I merely wish to tell you that her performance in “Way Down East” seems to me to be the most superlatively EXQUISITE AND POIGNANTLY ENCHAINING THING THAT I HAVE EVER SEEN IN MY LIFE.
I remember seeing Mrs. Duse in this country many years ago, when I imagine she must have been at the height of her powers—also Madame Bernardi—and for sheer technical brilliancy and great emotional projection, done with AN ALMOST UNCANNY SIMPLICITY AND SIN-CERITY of method, it is great fun and a great pleasure. It is a PRECISELY THE SAME ENCHANTING ANDтельный QUALITY OF ART WORK WHICH MRS. DUSE AND MADAME BERNARDI HAVE, with beautiful voices and of course the drop of water from the hand.
I wonder if you would be good enough to order Miss Mississip from all of us who are trying do the best we know how in the theatre. Belove me;
Yours very sincerely,
(Signed) JOHN BARRYMORE.
