Mr. Wise: "Yes, I know those sale stunts, you pay for a pound and a half and you get a pound and a half, you can't tell me.

Reich's Ad Man: "You may know 'sales' but you don't know 'Hertz', that's the one thing I've been trying to get across—these sale prices are equivalent to 54-1/2 off, of regular prices on every pound of box candy in the store.'

Mr. Wise: "Do you mean to tell me that if I buy a pound of candy I will get a pound and a half, of good fresh candy?"

Ad Man: "That's just what I mean. This is fresh stock, and when 'Hertz' said that he'd rather give this candy away than to sell any of it to his customers after it was a little old, we fixed up this proposition.

Mr. Wise: "Well what I say is really so is it the first time I ever knew anybody to really give anything away."

Ad Man: "The proof of the pudding is the eating, just go around to 'Rochard's', look at the most complete line of chocolates in Iowa City, Price them and see whether or not I ment.

Twelve senior women elected to take part in this or any other future practice, according to Miss Muller.

The rules for the special practice are to be Iowa's typical woman.

"I feel that I have lots of friends, who want to do what I do and don't know how to do it. I feel that I have lots of friends, and that's how I am appreciated, and that's how I feel good," said she.

"Oh, and I feel foolish, too. I have one classmate at Iowa. People make me feel that way."

"But anyway it's a nice sort of feeling," she added and dashed on to her gym class.

Terminate Successful Practice Season by Defeating North Dakota

Center Problem Is Solved

Sechelt to Be at Center—One and Kearney Are Strong at Endwork—Arms--Arms is Star Basket;—Kearney Rules North Dakota Star to One Basket.

(SPECIAL TO DAILY IOWAN)

By Henry C. Niles

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 15.—With a stiff practice schedule successfully terminated with the defeat of North Dakota last Saturday night, 19 and 10, the Minnesota basketball team face the Big Ten opening with Iowa here next Friday evening. The first squad has been given a lot of work last week polishing up the glaring cruddles that characterized the play against the Flickertails.

Doctor Cook found into the matter with his pugilist in the foregoing test. The team play was crude; the passing was crude; and the basket shooting was crude. Through the first half the husky, slippery operators broke up the Gopher attack more than they kept them from outside the shooting range. When hard pressed the passing of the home team was weak, oftentimes directly in to the hands of Dakota players. Ardis, one, and Sechelt had a mans for dribbling and maneuvering long shots which went wide of the ring.

Sechelt at Center

The center report has been apparently solved in Carl Sechelt, a tall, limber player, with a world of endurance and some basketball experience. He showed up to advantage against North Dakota, conferring that he has been on the squad only three weeks and if his shooting and passing continue to improve, he will enter the circle next Saturday against the Hawkeyes.

Captains On and Armas have doubles on the foreced jobs and Kearney, by holding the terrible Hersee to one less basket, slipped a venue over the running guard past. Standing guard is still a mark de- icted position on the team with Hulmes, Sullivan and Parks all hanging their fingers in the job. The foreman is the best free man of the trio with Ehrke with unspeakable spirit is a base-curn in the scorebook in his own basket.
