Getting Ready To Go

With 1921 only 17 days old, announcements of new prices on wearing apparel for men and young men have been made by the manufacturers. Each item has been lowered, so that, the average throughout a stock such as we have, is approximately 1-3 less than fall prices.

Consequently...

It has been up to us to go through every line and Re-inventory at Replacement cost and Remark Retail Prices to correspond. Naturally this has caused considerable loss to us. However we preferred to take it on our past years business rather than carry it on through--trying to make ourselves believe the depreciation was not really there.

It Took Time

To do all this remarking besides buying those things we needed to replace our...

Purdue may have its best game of the season against Michigan, and the outcome of this game will determine the winner of the conference. Purdue has been a strong defensive team, and if their offense steps up, they will be a formidable opponent for Michigan.

The result of the game between Indiana and Illinois will be important. Indiana looks distinctly better than Illinois, and if they can hold onto the lead at the half, they will have a good chance to win.

Northwestern and Wisconsin will have an exciting game. Northwestern has been a close competitor to Wisconsin in recent years, and if Northwestern can improve their defense, they will have a good chance to win.

The game between Purdue and Michigan will be a key match up. Purdue has a strong defense, and if they can keep Michigan's offense in check, they will have a good chance to win. However, Michigan has a strong offense, and if they can get the ball into the hands of their stars, they will have a good chance to win.

The game between Illinois and Wisconsin will be a close match up. Illinois has been a strong team this year, and if they can hold onto the lead at the half, they will have a good chance to win. Wisconsin, on the other hand, has been inconsistent, and if they can improve their offense, they will have a good chance to win.
