FORMER COACHES ATTEND DOWA-MINNESOTA GAME

Among the numerous and athletic directors who were present at the Lawrenceville game were two former Iowa athletes and coaches, Mervin Kent who coached football and basketball teams here and Edwin G. Run- cick ’23, a former basketball coach and Flawveys’ forward.

Kent is now coaching the Iowa bas- ketball team and so far has turned out a team that looks formidable. He will bring his Agile quintet here next Tuesday night to battle the Iowa five.

Dr. Bannick is now filling a position in Mercy hospital at Des Moines.

He was graduated from the college of medicine in 1918. When in school Bannick made the all-conference team two years ago. Till now the quintet is the best of the quintets and that team will cause trouble for the rest of the season on the schedule.

Spring Round-Up

Clay Lindsay, hero of Bill Raine’s BIG TOWN ROUND-UP said there was no bronce he couldn’t ride, no man he couldn’t lick, and no woman he couldn’t love. And there wasn’t either. Read the book and see.

Clay Lindsay took in considerable territory, but he handled it in fine shape, He had the pep. And he passed it on to us.

That’s why we started our Spring Round-Up early.

Last week we phoned Hart Schaffner & Marx to send on our spring goods. Said our people are ready to buy at the prices we could make and we are getting ready to take care of them.

To-morrow we’ll tell you some more about Clay Lindsay and us.
Please don’t think—

That we are ever too busy to make you anything you want. The person wanting just a sandwich for lunch is just as welcome as the one wanting one of our special steaks.

This game will be the first of the round-robin series to be played between three teams.

Speeches on basketball were given Monday afternoon by basketball captains and W. A. A. members at the following wheels: Pauline Spencer All of Des Moines, captain of the night; and Gladys Tupper All of Spencer, at St. Mary’s high school; Louise Berry and Mary Turley of independence, captains of the freshmen team; at St. Patrick’s school; Margaret Holmes of Whiting, captain of the senior team and Dorothy O’Donnell All of Storm Lake, member of W. A. A., at the University high school. These speeches were very interesting in basketball, and the high school girls’ team from each school visited were invited as guests by W. A. Lincoln’s Philosophy

In observing February 12th as Lincoln’s Birthday, we recall his following words: “The way for a young man to rise is to improve himself every way he can.”

The young man possessing ambition and a bank account at the First National Bank, is usually assured the respect of his community, and, therefore, headed well toward success.
