PURDUE VICTORY LEAVES A HOPE

Boilermakers Defeat Indiana by 28 to 20 on Hoosier Basketball Court

WHITE HORTON, L.M.

Purdue University Head basketball coach, Mr. Harry Lowry, gave his team the highest award possible, the victory for the game. Purdue University leads Indiana by 28 to 20 on Hoosier Court, but the lead was not enough to prevent Indiana's victory. The Boilermakers will have to try again in the future to win.

Nebraska Men Have Defeated Oklahoma and Been Beaten by Ames

Two weeks past has placed the Iowa-Purdue Boilermakers in the lead for the national championship. Although the Iowa-Purdue Boilermakers have already passed the Illinois State social, the Illinois State social is still in the making. The University of Illinois social was held here at 7:00 p.m. Dec. 1. Dr. Clark's speech was generally well received and the social was approved by the board of directors. The date of the social was set for the 15th. The Hotel plans for the social are being completed.

Little is known as to how the meet will happen against Purdue, but it is thought that Coach Adolphson will meet with the Illinois State social on the 16th, and with the exception of a few shots at the social, they are more interested in themselves. Medical Supervisor Fussell is on the court with the team. The meeting at the present time, according to the social officials, will determine the return to the Purdue five again.

CITY DRAMA LEAGUE
ARRANGES TO BRING
PUPPET SHOW HERE
Two puppet performances, which are performances by funny actors, will be given at the national science auditorium on March 18 when Lillian O. Northam's marionettes will appear in each and the Bosshardt and Rynor Halls. The action of the marionettes are controlled by wires which are manipulated by trained actors hidden from view. Each puppet essay, as its name suggests, to give its movements and to say its speech as real.

The marionettes are being brought here under the auspices of the Iowa City drama league. Prof. Edward C. Malley, art critic of the department of public speaking, is chairman of the committee to charge. Commenting on the coming performance, Prof. Malley said: "These performances are new and unique in the way of entertainment but they are frequently given in the larger cities of this country.

The major attraction of Lillian O. Northam's program Rynor Halls is a small animal drama by John J. Martin. It is a dramatic treatment of famous old English ballads which filled with humor and colorful action. The afternoon performance, which is intended primarily for the public speaking will have charge of the coming performance. JESSEFUS AND KAY TALK TO MEN AT QUADRANGLE

President Walter A. Dempsey will give the last of a series of addresses at the quadrangle at 4 o'clock on Sunday, March 8. The subject of his talk will be "The Budget of Time."

These talks have been arranged, by the general council of the Quadrangle association and are given in the south tower room of the dormitory.

Dean George F. Kay of the college of liberal arts addressed about fifty men last Sunday afternoon, February 29, at the quadrangle. His subject was "What a Man May Expect from the University."

Dean Kay called the attention of his audience to the great resources and opportunities offered in the United States, in Iowa, and more especially at the University of Iowa. He said that this University is in the main the best available professors and making the best equipment and is aiming to make leaders of men of character and ability.

In discussing the matter, Dean Kay told that a man must put all of his school just what he put in it. He said that because a man was not a leader in college did not indicate that he would not become one to have life for the majority of men attain success between the ages of thirty-five and fifty.

"EARTHBOUND"

BASIL KING'S powerful story of the unseen world

FOUR lives bound together by a common creed—"No God—no Sin—no Future Life."

Two men and two women torn by the conflict between loyalty and passion.

Then inevitable disaster—and for one of them a headlong plunge to death.

Is the soul swept from earth the moment it is freed from the body? Or does it—earthbound—still share the violent emotions which the living must endure?

Does the personality change with death—how long do the old interests go?

Is there growth and progression even after the shadowy barrier has been crossed?

Basil King’s "Earthbound" is a gripping story of personalities reaching back and forth across this barrier.

It is a subject to which Basil King has devoted years of intense personal study. He brings to this great narrative an intimate knowledge of men and women, of their wants and emotional experiences.

"Earthbound" is a remarkable lifting of the veil that stands between this life and the next—a motion picture endowed with a power and human poignancy that can be found in no other form of art.

The year that it has taken to creation began a new era for the screen.

EARTHBOUND IS THE FIRST OF OUR SUPERB PICTURES

George Loane Tucker's statement

"There is a message in 'Earthbound' that the wide world is greatly and deeply interested in, I sincerely hope that everyone who liked my production of The Miracle Man will go to see 'Earthbound'."

Gerrard Ashburne fascinates—

"I was enthralled, not only because the story itself is intensely interesting, but because it is unique. Nothing of the kind has ever been done—a unique idea presented with the most perfecting artistry."
