A DIME’S SHOW!

Charles W. Quinby of Toledo, O., has given President Harding a box of alligator teeth, "Conrad Lizzie Boy!"

Time will come when Washington newspaper correspondents say that Lizzie Boy was there, but he will have to be quite a close observer indeed to quote a single item of any significance in his own paper.

The famous alligator teeth will be a subject of much discussion in the pages of the Washington newspapers, but it is doubtful whether Lizzie Boy will ever be able to describe them accurately.

TRACK TRYOUTS HELD SATURDAY

Coach To Pick Team To Go To Indoor Meet At Northwestern March 18-19

Tryouts will be held the referee track and Saturday by Coach Bresnahan to pick the team which will represent Iowa at the indoor conference meet to be held at Eastern March 18 and 19.

The indoor conference meet is one of the important meets of the year, in which all the conference coaches and a number of outsiders, have entered teams. It has not been decided how many Iowa men will be entered but it is probable that all of the men who planted with promise at the Illinois meet will be entered.

The track is being reviled with a mixture of fine clays and clay at the present time and it is probable that it will not be the best of conditions at the time of the trials. Sometimes next week Coach Bresnahan will issue a call for freshmen track men, The freshmen will work out with senior, and in this way receive instructions for next year. At the time that the call is issued for freshmen, a call will be issued for all men with freshmen and upper classmen who are interested in cross country. Coach Bresnahan in anxious to have all distance men go out for cross country meet in order to get development for distance running.

TWO PLAYS IN LATIN
PRESENTED TONIGHT
BY CLASSICAL CLUB

The two Latin plays to be presented by the Classical club tonight in the little theater in the experimental school building promise to be well attended, according to Miss Lillian Lawler, who has the program in charge. One of the plays is to be put on by the boys of the club and one by the girls and the names of them will be kept a secret until the beginning of the performance. The audience will be asked to decide which play is the better acted. The losing side will entertain the winning side some time in the future.

THE PLAYERS will wear old Roman costumes. Social dancing in the experimental school building auditorium will follow the presentation of the plays.

Miss Lawler, who has the program in charge,
