PLAYGROUND TO BE BUILT HERE

Fund Started in Cedar Rapids

By Mrs. Stephen W. Wilder

A subscription of $100 was started in a playground fund. The sale of all the children's paintings has raised the amount to $100. The fund will be put into a playground in Cedar Rapids by the end of the summer. The money raised will be used to build structures for the playground.

Retiring Group

Jean Wilson, Ludwig, responsible for the organization of the Song Books. The twenty women received the money to be used for the playground.

HAMILN GARLAND TO CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY TOMORROW EVENING

Hamiln Garland Literary society will hold its second annual foundation banquet at 6 p. m. Monday, May 15, at the Pajaro tea shop.

The toast program will carry out the theme of the pioneer spirit as expressed in Hamlin Garland's "The Middle of the Border," and in "A Wedding in the Prairie," the color scheme of music and humor will be seen in this program.

Margaret McQuigg pitched the toasts and Anna Boe then took the foreground.

The Community room of the Student Union will be the scene of the occasion. A full house was secured and a good time was had by all.

Three Years for a Start

J. H. N. W. J. N. J. H. W. J. N. W. J.

When you find it the most plausible and beneficent business to collect, it is constructive work, it produces self-reliance and independence and affords a good means of livelihood. But to be a J. H. W. J. N., it is necessary for you to know something of the work and the discipline the organization has to offer.

KANSAS UNIVERSITY TO HAVE NEW POSTOFFICE

Lawrence, Kans.--The University of Kansas will have a new office every year in less than a year, the University of Kansas will be the extent of the address on the window envelope for a U. S. postage stamp. The idea for the last post of the office was suggested by a J. H. W. J. N. student.

At present the manner of approaching the Kansas post office is not satisfactory.
