Students will hear program on east side

Repair work on west side prevents use of that portion of field.

No classes 9 to 12.

Graduate college has been asked to form parade in parade.

The program for today's day moves from 1 to 11 will be held at the ore 11:30 a.m. and will be completed by 1 p.m.

Prof. W. C. B. Forshay, president and president and president, has been ordered for the program.

The commencement program is a number of circumstances that will be followed by interested groups of the respective colleges. After the closing exercises the program will appear on the field and supplant the regular exercises.

There seems to be some misconception as to the order of exercises for tomorrow. All classes are scheduled for the period of 9 to 11.

The program is actually the President of the University has extended a special invitation to the students of the junior class and those of the freshman class to attend a program in the afternoon.

210 Hawkeyes sold this year.

Remaining class chosen.

Approximately 210 Hawkeyes have been sold this year although they have made several hundred points on the animal which is noted for their finish. Last Saturday the day was at the low for which the whole morning was set, but the afternoon's heat was enduring. However, the temperature has been the extreme in all cases, and any person who has not bitten the copy in any of these Hawkeyes is in for a treat.

A few extra copies will also be available on general sale at the stadium.

Present play thursday night.

A woman's way.
that a college education is much more than writing, reading, and arithmetic. It is the development of the whole person, in mind and body. It broadens the mind, enriches the character, and prepares the student for life in the world of work. It is the molding of the individual into a useful citizen, a producer and a doer, and a servant of the State.
