Business Building

Telling of commodities is fundamental in every business, and telling the intelligence affects the maximum of satisfaction and success. For the insurance salesman a business builder finds trustworthy ways to carry on the best and tell the story in the conduct of modern affairs.

The policy of telling, to him, is a human factor — but to be in business for himself, having no personal or community ties, in the factory, in the office, or abroad.

The conditions and positions of the insured parties are such that obtaining information is the key to success in insurance sales. You are in training to develop the ability to tell the story and carry it through. Before coming to school, you may have held a position in a business or a factory. Your record of success as an insurance agent is a matter for future benefit.

Y. M. C. A. PLANS NEW ACTIVITIES FOR 1936-37
Handbook Out Next Fall
A University handbook will be published during the summer. It will be sent out to all freshmen where addresses can be secured. It is planned to distribute a thousand copies free and to sell a thousand more to opposition for the price of fifty cents. The handbook will be sent to the class of 1937.

The handbook is being written by the Y. M. C. A. staff and will be distributed to all freshmen.

Plan Free Testing
Another feature of next year's Y. M. C. A. work will be free testing for freshmen. Thirty freshmen will be given a psychological test in subject in which they find assistance the greatest. Prof. A. C. Thomson, a member of the Y. M. C. A. staff, has conducted himself so bravely that he has been instructed to help freshmen.

Hathaway Home Helped The Y. M. C. A. intends to carry on a great deal of social work in the past years. Much more work is to be done at the hospital at Oakdale than has been done there. There is a great deal of child help.

Main picture will be given by the Y. M. C. A. at both Oakdale and at the Children's hospital in the west side of the city. Students attending the University hospital will be visited daily, supplied with the Daily Iowan and with magazines. Any other work is also to be helped after.
