RUSSELL GIVES HUMOROUS TALK
Presenta New Marking Systems At The First Weekly Assembly

Presented at the first weekly assembly of the summer session was a humorous talk on "New Marking Systems." Prof. Russell E. Baldwin, acting head of the department of education, opened the talk by saying, "I am going to tell you about some new marking systems that are being used in the schools." He then proceeded to explain how these systems were used and why they were better than the old systems.

FROICL STUDENTS AT CAPITAL OVAL
Fifty-one graduates from the college of law and eleven graduates from various universities will be given the state bar examinations this summer. It is expected that over thirty students will pass the examination and become practicing attorneys in the state.

Number Taking the State Bar Examination Shows Big Increase

Farr, acting head of the department of art history, said: "The new marking systems are much simpler and easier to use than the old systems. They are also much more efficient. I believe that we will see a great increase in the number of students passing the examination this year." The new systems include the use of colored pens and the use of symbols instead of numbers.

WOMEN FIND OLD CHELSE
A woman student, Jane Smith, was discovered in one of the best painting studios in the country. She was working on a painting of a landscape and was almost finished when she suddenly realized that she had used the same colors as an old Chelse diagram.

MAN TAKES OLD CHESLER
A man, John Doe, was working on a painting of a landscape and was almost finished when he suddenly realized that he had used the same colors as an old Chelse diagram.

The annual all-University party will be held at the Burbank ball room Friday, June 23, at 8:30 p.m. Admiring and will include graduates, students, faculty members and members of the faculty.

"If a good time was ever had by all, this will be it," said Milton C. DeMayo, chairman of the committee. The entertainment part of the program will consist of music, one or two serious speeches, and a lot of audience participation.

As many as four hundred can be accommodated at the Burbank, and the committee is hoping for that many dinners. The custom of having an all-University men's dinner during the summer session was started five years ago and has become an annual feature.

Tickets for the dinner will be on sale tomorrow morning. The price will be $1.00 from

MISS ALEETH WILLARD TO STUDY IN FRANCE

Miss Aleeth Willard, for five years an instructor in the department of speech at the university, will sail for Paris June 23 to enter the Conservatory of Dramatic Art in that place.

During the past year she has been studying with Julia Marlowe, the famous Shakespearean actress, and goes to Paris by special arrangements made by Miss Marlowe. Miss Willard will probably be away for two years.

During the early part of the war, Miss Willard carried plays to Camp Davis with other red cross workers, much the same way that the red cross is carried. Later she went to France and played in companies at the front. She was the originator of the June Fete, which is held yearly on the laws of the President of the University at commencement time.

MISS LEBEE ELECTED TO PHI BETA KAPPA

At a business meeting held Monday evening Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic organization, elected to membership Miss Florence J. Libes of Amana colonies, a student of the class of 1922. Through an error Miss Libes' name was accidentally omitted by the committee considering candidates eligible to Phi Beta Kappa on May 8, 1922.

WILL MAKE AMAWA COLONIES EXCURSION

Summer excursions will make a trip to the Amawwa colonies Saturday, June 17, the excursion party leaving at 9:30 a.m. from the north entrance of the library arts building. Prof. Elmar W. Hills will be in charge of the trip.

The party to make the trip is limited to sixty. The trip will be made only to accommodate a. charge of $3.50 per person to cover the expenses of the trip, which includes a lunch at one of the colonies. If persons go to the 'event' they should notify Professor Hills in order that arrangements might be made for their lunch at one of the colonies.

Those who plan on taking the trip should notify Professor Hills in room 205, or Miss Albia Hazard in room 206, not later than Friday noon.

FIRST PLAY HOUR DRAWS 76 STUDENTS

About 76 persons attended the first play hour held at the Woman's gymnasium Tuesday evening. The entertainment was held off with a great success, which served to break the ice, and then everybody joined in to make the rest of the evening enjoyable. The games and contests were arranged by and in charge of Miss Marion L. Lyon, acting director of physical education for women; Mrs. Bess Wilder Baker and Miss Winifred W. Taylor, instructors in the department.

The object of the play hour is to teach men and women how to play and to get the men take recreation with us to take their minds off their studies for a short time. This entertainment is to be put on through the cooperation of the departments of physical education for men and that of the women, and will be held each Tuesday evening, beginning at 7 o'clock. It is for everybody and a more elaborate program will be given next week.

MANUAL ARTS STUDENTS TO HOLD WEEKLY ROUND TABLES

The department of manual arts is planning to conduct an open meeting each week during the first semester.

These meetings, under a chosen leader, will afford each attendee an opportunity to bring up any individual problem for discussion, also to hear others of problems discussed. The meetings will be primarily for those taking courses in the department, but all who are interested may attend.

Last year the meetings in this department were preceded by a lecture given by one of considerable importance in the line of work, followed by a discussion of personal problems. Mr. Higbee is of the opinion that the discussions were of more interest and value to those attending than the formal lectures.

For this reason the meetings this year will not include a formal lecturer but simply an introduction of the general topic for discussion followed by a discussion. The time of these meetings will be announced on the weekly calendar.
