Lucie Shovers Pop

All the members of the varsity, with the exception of five, who were not yet at Iowa, were at present in the stands. As the Huns were too close to the goal post to use the silent system, the execution was up to the satisfaction of the Iowa audience.

The Daily Iowan is setting the pace

It is not often that the editorial staff of a newspaper has an opportunity to talk about itself, but today is different. So many Iowa City merchants were celebrating something or other yesterday morning that the advertising department gave us this space to fill with chronicles of our past achievements and with advance notices of the glory that we expect to win in the future. We do not even have to ask you to subscribe.

The circulation manager said that every subscription taken now meant a net loss to the paper. Of course, we would rather have you read our paper than not, but orders are orders.

Six to nothing may be a good score in a football game, but The Daily Iowan is not satisfied in its daily contests with the other college papers unless the score is at least sixty to nothing in our favor.

You may have missed C. Bruce Gould's report of the Yale-Iowa football game on Sunday. If you did, get hold of a copy now. We have not yet seen the accounts of the game carried in all the newspapers, but we have seen a good many of them, and Mr. Gould's was the best of the lot. Here is what Prof. Edwin Diller Starbuck has to say about it:

CORN AND CULTURE

I wonder if Bernard Shaw could have written the big game as cleverly as Mr. Gould. That gift or attainment is possible only to one who has fed on the strength of corn and the cream of culture, so long as we can and not only Franklin to play the game, a Coach Jones to show him how to do it, but a Bruce Gould to tell us about it, the country is safe.

—Edwin D. Starbuck.

STUDENTS KEPT OUT OF UNIVERSITY SCHOOL BY STRIKE

The students of the University School, who have been on strike since Monday, will continue their strike this afternoon. The strike was called due to the fact that the school is not providing adequate funds for the maintenance of the school. The students have been trying to get the administration to provide better facilities for the students, but the administration has refused to do so. The strike will continue until the administration provides better facilities for the students.
