Accept Yale’s Challenge in Rifle Match

Contest Telegraphic; Men Are To Compete With Iowa

The Iowa rifle team received the challenge letter yesterday morning from Yale, requesting the match and approved by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The president, on the basis that men at this university belong to the rifle club, in case another team should challenge the Iowa rifle club, has ordered that the challenge letter be sent.

Yale has already rejected the challenge of the City College, New York, and the team sent by the president to compete against the Iowa rifle club.

The Iowa rifle team has been making good progress. The team is expected to be ready to face Yale in the match, which will be held on the Iowa rifle range. The match will be held on the morning of the 26th of this month.

Chicago Faculty Talks on Education

Chicago Faculty Talks on Education

Chicago faculty, including members of the University of Wisconsin, the University of Chicago, and the Illinois Institute of Technology, have been debating the question of education in the light of the recent events in Europe. The faculty members have been discussing the role of the university in society and the responsibilities of the university in the current political climate.

The faculty members have been expressing their concern about the rising tension in Europe and the possibility of a new war. They have been discussing the role of the university in providing a platform for social and political discussion and the need for universities to provide a safe haven for intellectual freedom.

The faculty members have been calling for universities to remain independent of political influence and to continue to provide a space for free and open dialogue. They have been expressing their support for the democratic principles and values that are at the core of the university.

The faculty members have been calling for universities to continue to play a vital role in shaping the society and to provide a platform for intellectual debates and social change.

The faculty members have been calling for a strong and vibrant university system to continue to provide a space for learning and discovery and to continue to contribute to the betterment of society.

The faculty members have been expressing their commitment to the principles of academic freedom and the importance of universities in promoting social progress and change.

ATTENTION! Sensitive Men

In spite of the fact that women's clothes are designed and manufactured by men, are sold on the road by men, and most of the ready-to-wear shops are owned and operated by men, the majority of men not connected with the trade, are somewhat diffident about going in a woman's store-—a dry goods store.

Neglect and lack of interest have caused many to fail this fall. In February thirty per cent of the home outstanding were past due requesting notices and payments have deeply been saddened in the attempt.
At present, William H. Stones, sec-tary of the University, has $497.50 in the fund. Of the present and standing loans, which amount to $477, $173.50 are past due. The long range plan is to use $5 in the.
The loans are made to students in consideration of the need of the, the health of your,
the class of the college which the applicant is a resident. They are made upon the student's application for beauty and integrity. No mora-ity is required. For the past one year the interest at the rate of six per cent per annum has been charged.
The loans are made as a rule for short periods of thirty to sixty days.
The fund is fed by donations of small winters. It has doubled in just the past two years. The work and burden of handling the fund is done free of charge for the benefit of the students.
