KU KLUX KLAN HIGH WIZARD VISITS HARDING

NEW LIMITATION OF ARMAMENTS PARLEY ASKED

King of Utah Starts Movement for Reduction of Armaments

By Clayton Whipple (United News Service Correspondent) (Des Moines, Iowa, Dec. 18.-High officials of the Ku Klux Klan sold Sunday at the Iowa White House, where the all-new organization enjoyed a two-hour banquet and received its new offshoot, the Ku Klux Klan.

The Ku Klux Klan, which was formed in 1865, is a secret society that was responsible for the lynching of African Americans during the Reconstruction era. It was revived in the 1920s as a white supremacist organization.

The Ku Klux Klan was a powerful force in the southern United States, particularly in the post-Reconstruction era. It was formed to combat Reconstruction era policies that granted political rights and social equality to African Americans. It used violence, intimidation, and terrorism to suppress African Americans and prevent them from voting or holding public office.

The Ku Klux Klan's resurgence in the 1920s was fueled by fears of racial mixing and cultural change, particularly among white southerners who were_adjusted to the political and social changes brought about by Reconstruction.

The Ku Klux Klan's activities included lynching, violence, and terror, as well as the promotion of white supremacy and the maintenance of racial segregation. It was known for its white hoods, which were worn as a symbol of anonymity and secrecy.

The Ku Klux Klan's activities were condemned by most Americans, and it was eventually weakened by its own internal divisions and the rise of the New Deal in the 1930s.

The Ku Klux Klan's resurgence in the 1920s was a significant factor in American politics and culture, and it had a lasting impact on American society and politics.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year
"MART" WILL BE "BOWERY" PARTY

"Fifty-Two M." Convenes To Be Present At Annual Commerce Party

The Mart, the social celebration of the college of commerce, will take the form of a period Bowery dance, according to the latest information, given out by the Mart enthusiasts. Bowery dance is the sort of affair that one meets with on Thirty-third street in New York and represents the sentiment of specialized persons, such as bartenders, the knights of Thirty-third, to make their ball look like a palace.

The New Idea Service of Iowa City is working out the idea, which promise to be novel in all its details. The decoration will carry out the effect of a typical Bowery dance and the programmes will also carry out the idea. Approximate sketches for the interior of the programmes will be drawn by Professor Briggs. The decoration will carry like a palace. The programmes will be drawn by Professor Briggs of the department of industrial arts and the interior will carry the name of a genuine Bowery dance, "Toity-Toid Mars."

Frank to Lecture in February On the Next Renaissance

Gleason Frank, author-in-chief of the Century magazine, also business editor of the Saturday Review, will lecture here, February 26, on these lines: "The Coming Renaissance of Western Civilization." He points out that there is a "hollow century," the updrawing of which is that western civilization is quietly approaching a new dark age. Mr. Frank takes evidence of the approach of facts presented by these workers and theories and does not try to dissimulate with empty and futile optimism.

He points out that this literature is inspired by what he has called the "five faces of western civilization"—the religious, that the life is deteriorating, the political, that the councils and the corporate form of thinking will have to the plane of the creative and assertive individual who has chiefly been the architect of progress; the moral, that our industrial civilization has overreached itself and in carrying ahead it has, to a few, the economic, that the modern world with its liberalism and its complexity has become unrecognizable by existing administrative backgrounds; and the moral fact that this wild generation has restored its allegiance in wholesome churches.

As against these fears Mr. Frank presents an inspiring amount of creative ideas that have been put forth from time to time by various writers, statesmen, and industrialists, which, if read from the hands of scholars and clergymen, and put to the highest work in the direction of our political, social, and economic life, would clear a new dark age and open the door to a new renaissance.

NEWBERG'S PORTRAITS BY PHOTOGRAPHY

Our policy will continue in the future as before and we will try to give you the newest and best for the least, and we will give you the best co-operation in your selection of wearing apparel. Once more let us say that we wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Here's How--

Boys we wish you a real good old-fashioned Christmas and the happiest of New Years. We want you to go home and rest your mind and body before the fireplaces and consume great portions of mother's food which we know will be waiting for you when you arrive.

This is what we wish for our thousands of friends on the campus and it is in this way we would try to show appreciation for the liberal patronage extended us during the past few months.

Our policy will continue in the future as before and we will try to give you the newest and best for the least, and we will give you the best co-operation in your selection of wearing apparel. Once more let us say that we wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
DOPING THE DOPE

"Doc" Schneller says that interfraternity and intramural basketball is among greater interest this year than ever before. Besides two teams playing the quadrangle has a league that plays in the new arena. Teams will be played in such Happier by the officials, and these matches will engage in a post season series to determine the inter-mural championship of the University.

We understand that men who make the fraternities basketball crew will be asked to return free, playing with their fraternities or close teams. Since the coaches believe that these players will go enough in the daily practices that will be held after the holidays.

The make-up of the fraternities basketball squad will be announced affer Christmas.

The University of Nebraska asked for a basketball game with the Hawkeyes on December 17th or 18th.
Coach Barry would like to play them but he has already made arrangements for three prominent games, all that can be played under the conference rules.

Two or.3-skill basketball players are not for places on the three varsity squad. These men, Glidden and Hill, have played plenty of being named these men were selectors but will use.

The Knox college basketball team, which lost to Iowa but yesterday, faces in this second meeting today.
December 25. Last year Coach Sam
Berry played practically the same team fast and few were out of shape.

Basketball players will now back to school a day or two after Christmas.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Today the student body will depart for the four corners of the state, and although may say that the home towns stand ready to greet their men and women, it makes but little difference whether there is but one or twelve. South of the main channel of commerce or a hundred, the season will be out and the Christmas greeting sincere.

Perhaps the gray dull monotony of country life in Iowa, described with such enthusiasm in recent week-days, will not carry all the sentiment in its authors' minds. Perhaps Iowa folk, said to live in a broad and fertile existence, have not been entirely bereft of their share of the milks of human kindness. Although they may be in the relative edge of our heart's interests, and unimpressive as they go, still it is likely they retain their virtuous upon which our democracy is founded.

The Iowan wishes to送出a merry Christmas and happy New Year to all.

A REAL CHANCE TO AID

There seldom comes a time when the Iowa student can avail himself of a better opportunity to be of tangible aid to his University than at the present. A number of things need to be contrived back to the various communities of the state, among these are of vital importance, the fact that the University cannot maintain as high an educational standard as it should if it confines itself to the handling of over- crowded conditions which now confront it.

The University must expand and this can be accomplished only by an appropriation from the state legislatures. Every year the number of students increases, and every year the situation becomes increasingly difficult to cope with the situation without a corresponding enlargement of the budget.

In the coming session of the state legislatures, the state board of education, according to reports, will ask for a sum of $72,724 for the University. At first thought in the average citizen of the state this may seems more than sufficient but to one or two with the situation as a University student, the amount must be regarded as very moderate. It is well to remember that the taxpayers of the state can receive first-hand knowledge of conditions here only through the State.

The greatest opposition to the appropriation being the same unreasonably cares from the ignorant who are not in touch with the situation at the University. Perhaps there is no way in which the University can be made to tell the truth.

Perhaps if each student makes it his duty to see to the fact that the educational portion of his day is turned in a way that they respect, then they should be comparatively little difficulty in securing what is an appropriation.

We must have it in our judicious to our student body.

FRIENDS SUPPRESSED OF NEWS

You read countless times to decide to ignore M. Collamer's departure from America. This is not because M. Collamer is irreplaceable but because the Poles, Germans, etc., which exists an intense conflict of the press, few that he may turn out to find him in Iowa.

Pawnee is unfortunately in her perplexity. There is probably an advanced country in the world where news is considered of such small value as compared with political opinion. With much exception the Pawnee press is always playing some-
