LINEMAN WILL PILOT 1923 BIG TEN ELEVEN

Six Captains-Elect Are Michigan appears on Iowa university, D III.

Friday, December 10, 1922

If you are a fan of football, you are familiar with the selection of the team that will represent your alma mater in the upcoming season. This year, Michigan will be led by six talented young men who have been chosen to pilot the team. These are the captains-elect, and they will play a crucial role in leading the team to victory.

The selection of the captains-elect is a significant event in the football season. It is an opportunity for the team to show their determination and readiness for the upcoming season. The captains-elect are expected to lead by example, both on and off the field. They will be responsible for motivating their teammates and ensuring that everyone is focused on the task at hand.

In addition to their role as leaders, the captains-elect will also be responsible for ensuring that the team adheres to the rules and regulations set forth by the university. They will be responsible for maintaining a high level of sportsmanship and integrity, both on and off the field.

The selection of the captains-elect is an honor, and it is a reflection of the hard work and dedication that these young men have put into their football careers. They have demonstrated their skills and competitiveness, and they have earned the respect of their teammates and coaches.

As a Michigan fan, you can look forward to seeing these six young men lead the team to victory in the upcoming season. They will be a force to be reckoned with, and they will ensure that Michigan football continues to be a source of pride for all of us.
