"RADIO HERE TO STAY" SAYS FORD
Entertainment Value of Radio Considered Its Greatest

The rapid rise of radio in the last few years has aroused more speculation as to the probable extent of its beneficial developments in perfection. The question is now being asked whether the show or the radio is the greater attraction. Will radio dislodge the theater or is it the perfect accessory to the theater? It is the opinion of some who have observed radio development that radio is the basis for television, as the radio is the basis of the show. In fact, it is the opinion of the radio that the television is not as important as the radio in the history of radio. Professor A. B. Ford, professor and head

The Kansas team, which was from Ivy League on the affirmative, was composed of David W. Stewart A2 of Iowa, Hurl H. Printz A of Bowdoin, and Charles H. Roll A of Newport, James W. Stewart Li of Bowdoin

In the debate, the two opponents presented opposing views on the subject, the affirmative arguing that the Kansas students had the necessary qualifications and the negative contending that the Kansas students had not been proven qualified.

The Kansas team had another victory, a federal court with nine jurisdictional powers over more than a million square miles of territory, the second largest in the nation and the fourth largest in the world.

The negative sustained by fairly stating that the Kansas students had been

What chance have you got against him?

I was a cynic who said: "Some men go to hell. Other men stay on earth.

A slander! But yet there probably are college men whose bills for midnight oil are not large. And there are men who left school in the lower grades who, along with a hard day's work, put in long hours of study—spurred on by a dream of college education. Look out for them.
