HAROLD SEKS VINDICATION IN 1924 ELECTION
President Has Agreed To Active Campaign By Republican

(DAYTON, Ohio—April 14—President Harding has agreed to active campaigning for the Republican ticket by his friends here, it was learned tonight. The president has decided to seek the support of the people of this state and of the nation at large, in view of the pending presidential election.

Mr. Harding has agreed to act as a national campaign leader, in order to make his views and policies known to the American people. His campaign will be launched in the next few days, with a series of public appearances and speeches.

Mr. Harding's decision is based on the belief that the country needs strong leadership, both at home and abroad, in order to meet the challenges of the present era. He will work tirelessly to ensure that the Republican ticket wins the upcoming election.

The campaign will include speeches in key states, rallies, and other events designed to mobilize support for the Republican ticket.

The campaign will focus on issues such as national security, economic growth, and the need for strong leadership in the face of global challenges. Mr. Harding will be joined by key members of the Republican ticket, including Vice President Charles G. Dawes, and others who will be announced in the coming days.

Mr. Harding's decision is welcomed by his supporters and has been endorsed by many key figures in the Republican Party. The campaign is expected to be one of the most competitive in recent history, with both parties vowing to do everything in their power to ensure victory.

The campaign will be financed by a combination of private contributions, public funding, and other sources. The campaign will be closely monitored by the press and the public, with a focus on transparency and accountability.

Mr. Harding's decision is hailed as a victory for the Republican Party, which has been struggling to regain control of the White House and Congress in recent years.

The campaign will be waged in the spirit of cooperation and unity, with a focus on finding common ground and working together to address the challenges facing the nation.

The campaign will be guided by the principles of responsibility, integrity, and respect for the American people. The Republican ticket is committed to serving the nation with honor and distinction, and to ensuring that every American has a voice in the future of the country.

The campaign will be guided by the core values of the Republican Party, including economic freedom, strong national defense, and a commitment to Table of Contents.

The Greatest Drama of All Time

A few reasons why you cannot afford to miss this the finest dramatic production on tour this season

George Seeger as Job

From the time the first shaft of light illuminated the figures of the Narrators to the closing moment when the light faded from the niches the Narrators spoke the last word and the lights went out, every audience was all but absorbed in the spectacle of the vast tragic drama as they heard it and saw it.—The Outlook.

Former University Commandant
Appointed To Service At Ft. Leavenworth

Mag. Gen. Hanson K. Eli, who served Mag. Gen. Abner C.
Brooke in the management of the general service at Fort Leavenworth, was appointed at the University of Iowa this winter to take the place of that officer and to succeed to the seniority of the service. In assuming his new post General Ely receives a promotion through the ranks of his brigade general. General Ely is a nephew of O. H.
Buchell, Iowa City, who graduated from the University in 1872. General Ely's father, Capt. R. H. Eli, lived in Iowa City for many years. Four sons were born to Captain and Mrs. Ely while they were living in Iowa City.
