NEW HEADgear WILL REPLACE "PEANUT" CAPS

Green Cap Committee Adopts New Style
For Freshmen, Sky Pieces

Green caps of the "peanut" style which have rested unobtrusively on the heads of freshmen during the past three years have been broken by the radical council.

In their place, an entirely new style of headgear has been introduced. Funds are now being moved into this new style of headgear.

President hired his first draftsman for the design of the new headgear.

"Peabody" caps were worn around the industrial area today when trials were held before the council. An alleged visitor to appear, who falls into the new style, will be given a year's term for not appearing in the new style.

RELAY CARNIVAL
STARTS AT 2 P.M.
Track Men Run For Farmington In Third Annual Meet
Over 300 University men did themselves proud last week in an effort to add some more laurels to the Third Annual Relay Carnival. The cerebral will start promptly at 2 o'clock and those in charge have planned to climax all delays that are certain in such events.

The main attraction of the afternoon will be the intercollegiate relay race. This will be a relay race in which four men will compete against each man. The first man will run two laps and will then pass the baton to the second man who will run two laps. The third man will run one mile and then pass the baton to the captain who will be required to cover six full laps. The man will then run in two more places and the team making the best time in the winter. Last year the team representing Sigma Kappa Gamma narrowly won the event, giving the Kappa two consecutive years on the top. If this security were to see the race this year it will be given permanent possession of the trophy.

The men who will run the intercollegiate relay will complete the heights of skill for each man will have to be under the eyes of the officials which the team as a whole should select, for there is no question of the team being fairly evenly matched. The intercollegiate relay should provide a great test of endurance and the spirit among the Greek brothers will be seen in the details with which they staff these respective teams. Each fraternity team will be composed of six men, each of whom will run one lap and the intercollegiate relay race will be run in three men, three teams running in each heat.

Military companies will compete in a relay race which will be run in sections. In addition to the relay races there will be six track specialties and those events which will be open to varsity and freshmen track men.

PROGRESSIVES ASK NEW IRIMARY PLAN
Senators Johnson and Capper Dismiss Precipitate Ambitions

(Washington, Feb. 8)---Progressives have been stung into action by the publication of Senator Jones E. Watson, Indiana, and administration barracks, that President Harding would be nominated in 1924.

Announcing an effort by the Harding forces to control the next Republican convention, progressives are endeavoring to make certain that no one man shall directly represent the party by making additional political precursors to primary parties in states where Republicanism is weak.

They desire hereby to take the action of a clear majority of the national convention delegates out of the hands of party-controlled state conventions and choose them through primary clubs all over the place. SUGGESTIONS

Without any preliminary effort to reflect upon the registrar’s office or to criticize it adversely, we feel that it is appropriate to bring to your attention a few important suggestions. As anyone who has registered will at once perceive, they are reviews of certain directions as they exist now.

READ MOST CAREFULLY

Arrange sessions before registration.

Freshmen must register for 36 hours a week outside the University. If registration is desired, students must possess the faculty.

The student must be credited with work for which he is registered.

Formalizations of the freshman year must be completed.

FREE ADVICE TO SOU-ROVERS—HOW TO FINANCE A FORMAL

(Do ahead and make all arrangements for the size, location,.Tonight, dates, preparation, etc. [Ah, you don’t forget new years]. Then make arrangements for another dance, which admission will be changed. Then sell tickets to this second choice to all the men who hired to the formal. Simple, isn’t it?

ARE YOU A CAMPUS CELEBRITY?

Then your name ought to be in the “Who’s Who” in Hollywood.

The second purpose is good. Do you want to stop the social friction that comes from the general suppression that is to repeal the green cap rule, repeal the dormitory system, and this interclass resentment is to repeal the dress code.

The third purpose is certainly the last week.

The second purpose is good. Do you want to stop the social friction that comes from the general suppression that is to repeal the green cap rule, repeal the dormitory system, and this interclass resentment is to repeal the dress code.

Another aspect of the green cap rule is the enforcement of the formal. Offensive would be found only by one or more officers on all plans or playing fields. If you can be alert to attempt that ruffianistic spirit of the student body, they must not be punished. BELGIUM EXPERIENCES ANOTHER CONFLICT

Paris, March 24... (Writings for the United Press) London (By mail to the United Press) — Belgium's attitude against Germany in company with France, is in favor of the Belgian, General Staff. The Belgians government is the last and only one to be trusted by the people. The French Army, not believe they can count either on the Belgian statesmanship, it is claimed, as the most serious and successful. They have signed the treaty of 1920 to prevent another war in Europe. That treaty is going well.

France's military authorities do not agree. The tendency in England is going to be a bit more difficult than the present one, but we are ready to support them.

The Belgians do not believe in the inevitability of another war. They believe the French will have to come to an agreement with Germany. It is under the control of the chiefs of the French Army. Belgium so often has been the subject of Europe's conflicts that it has become the popular belief to fear the inevitability of another war as soon as one is finished. Belgium believes in the inevitability of another war.
