Greek Government Will Make Efforts To avenge Attica Massacre

ATHENS, Oct. 4 (AP)—The government of Greece today voted a war of vengeance against Turkey for the recent massacre of 114 Greek civilians in the town of Sepulchre. The war department has called up all the reserve forces of the nation and has ordered the Navy to the Mediterranean.

"The massacre in Sepulchre is the culmination of a long line of Turkish outrages against the Greeks," said the government. "We will make every effort to avenge this outrage and to punish the Turks for their barbarous acts."

Turkish forces have been massing near the border and are believed to be preparing for an attack on Greece. The Greek government has called on the League of Nations to take prompt action to prevent a war of aggression.

Sixth District Opens Revolt Against Long

Louisiana Voters Burn "The Kingfish" in Effigy

BULLETIN RIVER BLUFF, La., Oct. 4—A mob of workers burned the portrait of Gov. Huey Long and threw it into the Mississippi River last night. The mob is reported to have been organized by Long's political opponents in the state and is of a similar character to the recent murder of the governor by his political enemies.

The mob, made up of workers from the local factories, set fire to the portrait and cheered as it was destroyed. Long's political opponents have been active in the state for some time and have been engaged in a bitter struggle for political power.

Dry Law Will Officially End as President Roosevelt Puts Name to Proclamation

Prohibitions Sought Delay Coming into Force

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP) — The President will today officially end the prohibition era by signing a proclamation ending the dry law. The proclamation will be signed in the presence of the Cabinet and will take effect at midnight.

Dr. John Wynekoop, who has been accused of murder, will be tried in a federal court in Des Moines, Iowa, beginning Jan. 4. The trial is expected to last for several weeks.

The proclamation will be signed in the presence of the Cabinet and will take effect at midnight.

The dry law was enacted in 1920 and was intended to prohibit the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages. The law was a result of the prohibition movement, which sought to end the use of alcohol in the United States.

BEHIND THE SCENES—IN HOLLYWOOD

GOOD MORNING

By These who are not particularly industrial, Robert Moreland is probably the best informed and the most enterprising of the major moguls. All that he has been doing is to help the nation in its efforts to build up a healthy film industry.

Moreland is a man who is interested in the motion picture business and who has been active in the industry for many years. He has been a director of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, and he is now serving as president of the American Society of Film Directors.

Moreland is also a member of the board of directors of the Film Producers Association, which is trying to promote the motion picture industry and to help in its development.

Malcolm Cowan, his personal confidant and the executive vice president of the company, has been active in the industry for many years and is now serving as president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America.
