Farm Federation Gives Almost Blanket Approval to F.D.'s Policies

Weeks Only Broadening Of Activity

New York, Dec. 15. (AP) — Grain and livestock prices firmed up as the Farm Bureau Federation, following its annual session in Chicago earlier this month, gave almost blanket approval to President Roosevelt's policies, and said that the President's leadership has been important in the development of better farm and rural conditions.

University Students Express Regrets at Jessup's Leaving, Pride in Foundation's Choice

Presidential Praise For Part in Development of Institution

A significant feature of the annual meeting of the University of Iowa alumni and friends was the statement of President John W. Heidel, of the University of Iowa, on the resignation of President Jessup. President Heidel said that the University of Iowa was a beneficiary of the Jessup administration, and that the University would have a difficult time finding a successor who could match Jessup's qualifications.

Michigan To Debate Iowa

Local Teams To Uphold Affirmative Case Tonight

The case will be debated by members of the University of Iowa and the University of Michigan, who will present their respective cases on the topic of the rights of the states in the federal system.

Michigan and other states have been studying the problem of the rights of the states in the federal system, and the debate will provide a forum for the presentation of the various viewpoints.

The debate will be held at the University of Michigan, and will be judged by a panel of expert judges.

The case will be debated in two rounds, with each team having the opportunity to present their case in both rounds.

The debate will be held at 8:00 PM, and will be broadcast live on radio station WXYZ.

Government Control of Press

Has Increased, Says Article

Article in the Daily Iowan suggests that the government control of the press has increased, and that this is due to the fact that the newspapers are now forced to publish articles and editorials that are favorable to the government. The author of the article, who is a well-known journalist, states that this is a clear indication of the fact that the government is now able to control the press. The article also points out that this is a cause for concern, as it is feared that the press may become a tool of the government, and that the public may be denied the freedom of speech.

County Quota

Of Women In CWS Filled

The number of women in the CWS has increased to the point where the quota has been filled. This is due to the fact that the CWS has been successful in recruiting women to work in the fields. The quota is now 100% filled, and the CWS is now ready to begin recruiting women for the next season.

We feel some degree of embarrassment today, when we discover that the Missouri River has overflowed its banks, now reaching the city of St. Louis. This is a situation we should have anticipated, but the magnitude of the flooding is greater than we expected.

It would be well if the American people would take the Missouri River advice in this matter and do everything within our power to prevent a repetition of the disaster of the past.

SEEN—
From Old Capitol
By Tom TOYBELL

The most striking thing to talk about yesterday seemed to be the question of who would receive President Calvin Coolidge's home at the University of Iowa. No sooner had President Harry S. Truman, whose name was the subject of conversation, been installed as the new occupant, than the name of his predecessor was figured in the office of the president.

And here is one more that didn't happen in the prophecy. President Coolidge arrived at the home on Saturday, 20 years ago. The next time he was there was 20 years later, when he was named for the presidency. Again, another 20 years and he is on the way to the home.

The Coolidge home will be held on the campus until the second week in April, and will be followed by a succession of other presidents and political figures. It is hoped that the Coolidge family will be able to be present for the dedication of the new home on the campus, the latest addition to the university.

City Utilities Are Discussed By Thompson

Municipal Ownership Is Vital Question, He Says

"The question of municipal ownership of public utilities is one of the most important in the history of the city," said Mr. Thompson. "If the people of the United States ever see the need of it, we will be ready to give it to them." The mayor is confident that within the next ten years there will be a movement for municipal ownership of all public utilities.
