On Borrowed Time, A Book To Remember

ON BORROWED TIME is the latest novel by American author Walter, Fred A. Knopf, 1943. Of the hundreds of books published each year, perhaps a dozen are worth reading. Perhaps one book in a hundred is worth reading, and of those, one book in a thousand is really worth reading. But, oh, we must be careful, for we do not want to be guilty of overstatement, and yet this book is so rare and so fine that we cannot help but feel that it is going to be a best seller. But, agreed? Oh, Borrowed Time is a book you will remember for a lifetime. It is a book that will make you think, and it is a book that will make you laugh, and it is a book that will make you cry. But, oh, we must be careful, for we do not want to be guilty of overstatement, and yet this book is so rare and so fine that we cannot help but feel that it is going to be a best seller. But, agreed? Hawkeye Fans Look Forward to Grid Season

Cornell, Drake, L.S.T.C., Coe Have Promise

IOWA CITY, IOWA STATE—Face Tough Schedules With Great Hopes

Iowa L., Iowa State—Associated Press Sports Writer

IOWA CITY, IOWA—For the Hawkeye fans, the Iowa State football season and the Iowa State football coach are alike. Both have the same object in view: to win the Big Eight Conference football championship.

The Hawkeyes have been shown in the Associated Press pre-season college football poll to be the second best team in the Big Eight Conference; Iowa State, the third best. The Big Eight Conference is one of the country's top football conferences. Each team in the conference is strong, and will be fighting to win the conference championship. The Hawkeyes have the advantage of playing their home games on the new Memorial Stadium, while Iowa State must travel to play their games.

The Hawkeye fans are optimistic about their team's chances of winning the conference championship. They believe that their team is strong enough to win the championship, and they expect the team to do its best to win. The Hawkeye fans are ready to support their team, and they are ready to cheer for their team in every game.

Liquor Store Raises Wages

Preliminary figures of the Iowa City liquor store show that 30,000 sales have been made since the new law went into effect, according to an announcement made by the owners.

The new law, which went into effect on July 1, 1935, raised the sales tax to 50 cents on the dollar.

Mr. W. J. Price, the store owner, said that the business has increased by 50 per cent since the new law went into effect.

This has been made possible by the fact that the price of liquor has been reduced.
