Attacks? War Plans Raid Hankow; Take Sage's Birthplace

MAO TSE TUNG (Beijing) - Japanese officials said here today that a large Japanese offensive on the North¬ ern Front was imminent. The attack was said to be a part of a strat¬ egy designed to increase Japanese military strength in the Kanto region.

The Japanese were said to be planning to launch an attack on the Chinese forces in the Shanghai area, followed by a continued drive northward.

The Japanese were also said to be preparing for a major offens¬ ev against the Chinese in the Northeast, where they have been reportedly gathering troops.

Cold Sufferers Should Remain Quietly in Bed for Rest Cure

By LOGAN CLENDENNING, M.D.

The well-known physician, Dr. Cleland, in his new book, "The British Patient," says that the cure for colds is best by a cold in bed. The patient should be left alone to rest.

The best plan is to stay in bed all day and all night. The patient should be given plenty of rest. The patient should be given plenty of rest. The patient should be given plenty of rest.

Today's announced return starts with No. 2. "American in Arms."

$400 Civil Suit Opens in Court

Lloyd Briggs Charges Misrepresentation

The $400 damage suit against District Deputy Lloyd Briggs by Lloyd Eggert, alleged fraud in the sale of a farm property, was filed in Johnson County district court on Tuesday (Dec. 13). It is said that a $100 bond in favor of Briggs was released from Dozier by Dozier, and that the bond was not released until after the suit was instituted.

Judge John B. Gates ruled that a $100 bond in favor of Briggs was filed in Dozier as a suit notice and that the bond was not released until after the suit was instituted. The judgment was then entered in favor of Briggs, and the bond was released.

WASHINGTON

R. CHARLES D. STEWART

There was a little delay-some say it was a little delay in the United States. Finally, they reached the conclusion that the United States should enter the war and the American people should support it. The popular vote was over-critiqued at the time.

Woodrow Wilson wanted this to happen. The president, to be sure, could create a state of emergency by using the War Powers Act. Then the president would have the use of an hour's notice, and the president could authorize an American declaration of war.

A Referendum Desired

Anti-Ludlow-ites reason that a popular vote to authorize an American declaration of war, leaving congress powerless, could in effect be interpreted as literally as that. President Wilson, describing the situation, said we were making a mistake to be so pacifistic at the time. "This time, with about as nasty a situation simmering, our inclination seems to be for a popular vote to be un-representative for the president, to be sure, as an act of emergency with the War Powers Act. Now the Mexican sea bass, which abound in the United States, recentl:..."
