Roosevelt, Utilities
Pledge Cooperation
In National Defense

Industries Wilo
Double Yearly Expenditures

Two Billion Dollars
To Be Expended In 5 Years by Utilities

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 (AP)—The large department of Interior, which controls the country's natural resources, announced today that the use of its funds would be channelled into what is known as "public works," or in other words, industries in which the federal government would make subsidies to, or enter into cooperation with private enterprises.

The industries in which the National Resources Board will undertake to enter include:

- The construction of oil wells for the purpose of expanding the production of petroleum in the United States.

- The construction of hydroelectric power plants for the purpose of generating electricity.

- The construction of railroads for the purpose of expanding the transportation network.

- The construction of power stations for the purpose of expanding the capacity of generating electricity.

- The construction of bridges for the purpose of expanding the transportation
network.

- The construction of canals for the purpose of expanding the transportation
network.

- The construction of dams for the purpose of expanding the storage capacity of water.

The industries in which the National Resources Board will not undertake to enter include:

- The construction of mills for the purpose of producing timber.

- The construction of farms for the purpose of producing food.

- The construction of factories for the purpose of producing manufactured goods.

The industries in which the National Resources Board will undertake to enter will be funded with a total of $2 billion over a period of 5 years.

The announcement was made by President Roosevelt in a speech given at the White House.

The announcement was met with widespread approval from the business community, which viewed it as a means of expanding the economy.

Hawkeyes in Belligerent Mood for Game

Carson, Hightower Lead U-High to 19-7 Win

River Boys Blast Through The West Branchers for Victory

Fumbles Almost Cost Blue Team Game; Play Well

D By OSCAR BANGRAGE

Daily Iowan Sports Writer

A raging thigh Uhlgian eleven in blue, and the after noon’s actividades around Carson and Hightower, made a blue wave in the Blue and White running up over the goal line and setting up two fumbles, which were to swing hope, 19-7.

Nevertheless, the Hawkeyes, who accounted for two of the three Uhlgian touchdowns, and was the chief source of fumbles had, as all the fans knew, was to be the men of blue, only a 19-7 lead to show for their efforts.

Hightower began the afternoon, for he is a long, sullen fellow, with an extra long tail, that would swing from deep into the blue half, and cut into the red one in the same way, never breaking away, never parting from the goal line until the half, as Uhlgian failed to count on the opening with a successful drive against West Branch. Rentz and Washington, however, were successful in making a score, as the ball went over the goal line standing 6-3.

Beginning the ball at the half point, the Uhlgians had the ball on the 50-yard line, and were threatening to score a touchdown, but Hightower, with a hard dive, and a strong arm, took the ball out of the Uhlgian possession, and returned it 20 yards, to the red half, where Sutterlin was able to make a score, and bring the game to the 19-7 lead.

Focusing off the ball from the half, the Hawkeyes gained on the half, with a movement that cut the blue line in the quick 19-7 lead, taking a short from Mr. Carson, and a drive to the 50-yard line, and was rushing for a touchdown, but a hard dive by Hightower, and a strong arm, returned the ball to the 19-7 lead, as the Uhlgians fumbled the ball on the 20-yard line.

HISTORIC MINNESOTA!

The Most Over-rated People

(Mrs. T. J. York)

Ever since the day when the sun set on the hilltops of the North Star State, no one of us has been able to appreciate the fact that the people of Minnesota were the best people in the world. It is true that we have had our share of difficult times, but we have also enjoyed many happy moments. This is one of those happy moments when we can say that Minnesota is the place to be. So, let us raise a glass to the people of Minnesota and enjoy the day!

GENERALISSIMO - G. Wash.

This morning I heard a very interesting story about a man who claimed to have written a book about Napoleon. When I asked him to show me the book, he was not able to do so. It seems that he never finished it. This is a shame because Napoleon was a very important figure in history and we should all be aware of his contributions.

THEORETISTS - John B. Blaine

I was very interested in a conversation I had with a group of theoretical physicists today. They were discussing the implications of quantum mechanics and the potential for new technologies. It was fascinating to hear their insights and to see how they apply to the world around us.

INNOVATORS - Henry Ford

Henry Ford was a true innovator. He revolutionized the automobile industry with his mass production methods and his emphasis on affordability. His legacy lives on today with the continued development of new technologies and materials.

LOVERS - Mr. & Mrs. Ismail

They are an amazing couple who have been married for over 50 years. Their love and commitment to each other is truly inspiring. I wish I had their strength and dedication.

LITTERATURE - James Joyce

Joyce was a prolific writer who lived through some of the most turbulent times in history. His work continues to be studied and enjoyed by people all over the world. It is a testament to his talent and the power of words.

EMPIRE BUILDERS - John D. Rockefeller

Rockefeller was a true pioneer in the oil industry. His vision and dedication to innovation and progress laid the foundation for the modern oil industry. We owe him a debt of gratitude.

PRESIDENT OF THE PRINT - John Barlow

Barlow was a leading figure in the print industry. He was a visionary who recognized the potential of print technology and worked tirelessly to bring it to the masses. He left a lasting legacy.

COWBOY - Robert Taylor

Taylor was a famous actor who starred in many classic Western films. His performance in "The Man From Laramie" was particularly memorable. He brought a sense of authenticity and realism to his roles.

ADVENTURERS - Douglas Fairbanks

Fairbanks was a true adventurer. He traveled the world, wrote books, and performed in many films. His spirit of exploration and curiosity is inspiring.

Hawkeye Feud Dramatized on NBC Program

March of Time

Featuring Springsteen, Mooney, Sullivan

Life magazine's Friday night "March of Time" broadcasts which went on the air at 8:30 every Friday night on the NBC blue network, dramatized University of Iowa scenes for the past 60 years. This week, the last of the series, a special broadcast was made on the last day of the university's 100th anniversary campaign.

Following widespread criticism concerning the cutting of last week's broadcast, the University of Iowa Board of Regents agreed to continue broadcasting the program. The board authorized the broadcast for the next 60 years. This week's broadcast will feature scenes from the university's past and present, including the opening of the new library and the dedication of the new gymnasium.

HOSTESS HINTS
Do you have streaks of authenticity when you plan and prepare for some sort of deliciousness in your home cooking? Or do you struggle and fret about how to prepare a dish or recipe for the perfect presentation? Whatever your approach, there are a few key tips to keep in mind as you prepare your meals:

1. Choose high-quality ingredients:
   - Use fresh, seasonal produce
   - Choose lean, high-quality proteins
   - Opt for whole, unprocessed carbohydrates

2. Pay attention to presentation:
   - Arrange your dish in an aesthetically pleasing manner
   - Use garnishes and toppings to enhance the visual appeal
   - Ensure the dish is well-presented, from the plate to the table setting

3. Pay attention to timing:
   - Cook your dish to perfection
   - Let it rest before serving

4. Pay attention to taste:
   - Balance flavors
   - Use herbs and spices
   - Adjust seasoning according to taste

5. Pay attention to freshness:
   - Use fresh ingredients
   - Ensure the dish is served hot

Johnson County Demos Plan Intensive Speaking Campaign

Ballots in Solon, Lone Tree, and Gillette Will Speak

Johnson county democrats have planned the most intensive speaking schedule in their campaign for next week with rallies in Solon, Lone Tree and Iowa City, according to Will J. Jackson, chairman.

The speakers have not been designated for either the rally in Lone Tree Monday or in Cedar Rapids Wednesday. But United States Senator Hubert H. Humphrey will speak in Cedar Rapids Thursday at an appearance made by him.

Jefferson and Ralph Arling, of F. R. Dodge, have selected district issue at a rally in Solon and tonight. Mr. Mercer discussed

Christian Youth Conference To Meet Nov. 5-6

The 11th annual state-wide Iowa Christian Youth conference will meet Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Okoboji. Among the principal speakers will be Dr. E. Vogt, pastor of the West Moline Episcopal church.

The conference is intended for all of the students between the ages of 14 and 18. Its purpose is to help these students decide if they wish to become Christians from following this way.

On Thursday morning Dr. Vogt will lead one of the discussion groups on the topic "Christian ap­proach to the economic crisis." Other groups will discuss the meaning of the God's will and the Bible's promise of life for all men.

About 600 Iowa youth will attend.
