Betty Jameson of the American tennis team, who recently won the women's singles and doubles events in the Pan American Games, has taken the title in the U. S. Women's Golf Meet, which was played at the Pebble Beach Golf Links in California.

Betty Jameson, who has played golf for many years, took the championship by defeating Mrs. Frank Dunham, of Kansas City, in the final round. Mrs. Dunham was the defending champion, having won the title in 1936.

The meet was held over three days and was played on a course that had been prepared especially for the event. The course is one of the finest in the United States, with its well-maintained fairways and greens.

Betty Jameson, who is a member of the American team, has been playing golf for many years and has won several important tournaments. She is considered one of the best golfers in the United States and has been a frequent competitor in international tournaments.

The meet was attended by a large number of spectators, who were impressed with the skill and precision of the players. The competition was keen, with many close matches and thrilling finishes.

The meet ended with Betty Jameson taking the championship, thus becoming the first woman to win the U. S. Women's Golf Meet twice.

The meet was sponsored by the United States Golf Association and was held at the Pebble Beach Golf Links, California.
