Here Are Today's Opponents—Minnesota's Golden Gophers

Harold Van Every, captain of the Gophers, is expected to make trouble for Iowa with his defensive plans. Stationed at left end, he is six feet, 10 inches and weighs 195 pounds. His presence in the Minnesota front line will add to Iowa's problems, and the second-string Gophers are strong enough to make trouble, too.

Van Every is a senior from St. Paul, Minn., and wears 16. He is a three-year starter, and in an effort to keep his weight down he runs nine miles each week. He is a three-year starter and weighs 195 pounds.

Joe Musser, Iowa's long and low guard, is expected to cover Van Every in the Gopher backfield. A six-foot, one-inch, weighs 188 pounds. He is a three-year starter and reacts quickly to his assignments. From Muscatine, Iowa.

Bill Johnson, Iowa's halfback, is expected to make trouble for Minnesota with his speed. He is six feet. one inch, weighs 180 pounds. He is a three-year starter and wears 22. He is a fullback and a halfback.

PHIL BERGEloh, the Iowa halfback, is expected to make trouble for Minnesota with his running style. He is six feet, nine inches and weighs 190 pounds. He is a three-year starter and wears 22. He is a fullback and a halfback.

Bill Anderson, the Gopher halfback, is expected to make trouble for Iowa with his speed. He is six feet, nine inches and weighs 190 pounds. He is a three-year starter and wears 22. He is a fullback and a halfback.

ROBERT ENTRUP is one of the best of the Minnesota halfbacks. A six-foot, eight-inch, weighs 180 pounds. He is a two-year starter and wears 22. He is a fullback and a halfback.

CAPTAIN WIN PEDERSEN is the Iowa center, which should be a strong point in the Iowa defense. He is six feet, 10 inches and weighs 205 pounds. He is a two-year starter and wears 66. He is a big man and a good performer.

Spuhler, the Iowa fullback, is expected to make trouble for Minnesota with his running style. He is six feet, 10 inches and weighs 190 pounds. He is a three-year starter and wears 22. He is a fullback and a halfback.

Merv Johnson, the Iowa halfback, is expected to make trouble for Minnesota with his running style. He is six feet, nine inches and weighs 190 pounds. He is a three-year starter and wears 22. He is a fullback and a halfback.

Who are these elderly men who sit, unobtrusively and almost inaudibly, on the University of Iowa football team's bench from a combination that isn't known now to us, that doesn't know how to tear!...Am the coaches Harbor their little steel bags filled with their secrets to be learned at the University of Iowa?

The answer to these questions lies not for us, in a mysterious se­cretary who sees only what goes on the football field, never the reactions of the team when it is off the field.

Who are these men who have been called the "Miracle Men," Dr. Edward N. Anderson, who may have seen a hundred games with the best teams in the world, who can take a piece of string, a bottle of glue and a few pieces of equipment for the football player and turn them into an unbreakable, unbreachable barrier for the opposing team? Who is the man who is the American for three years at Notre Dame and who has taught so many of its gridiron secrets to Iowa's gridiron magic? Who is Iowa's gridiron story? Who is the answer? DR. EDWARD N. ANDERSON, who was an all-American for two years, and head coach at Notre Dame from 1922 through 1924, went on to coach at Illinois, and then became an assistant at Northwestern in 1926. He later became head coach at Minnesota, and then Iowa, and is today Iowa's head coach. Dr. Anderson is known in the football world as a man of great integrity, who has always kept his word, no matter how difficult the task. He has been known to go to great lengths to ensure that his players are not only successful on the field, but also in the classroom.

Pressbox Pickups

By Oscar Harbake

Dr. Eddie Anderson, we find, is the sort of coach who never makes any promises. He is not the sort of coach who always says, 'We'll win this game.' He is the coach who waits and will be a surprise one. He knows his team is good and he is careful not to make promises. He is a hard man to deal with."

It's probably the most foolish coach in the world, we think, to make promises."
