Don't Let the Questions, or the Apprehensions, of This New University Life Confuse You

As we look back upon the days, not too many years ago, when our homes were the scene of our first years, and we went away to school, it is easy to see how the change in the habits and to the training of life marked fears about almost anything.

The element of the unknown which over one's shoulder upon a new experience, in a new place, is a strain upon physical and mental resources. A look at one's back is enough to cause a thrill, and sometimes to fear some4 untoward experiences. So, to Thus in this fundamental fear of change, we seek outward to turn to new things, new places, new people. They open new experiences; we meet new experiences. We need new experiences.

So if it is, we know, with many of the hundreds of new students who have arrived this first time this year to live in Iowa's university home, It's important that this first broken and uncomprehended strain which some of us brought with us should not only be understood and accepted, but made use of in the growth of the individual. Our first friends are the only people who can understand us. These are the friendships that will last a lifetime, These are the friendships that will last a lifetime.

The new house majorly leaders who have been designated to work with the new students, who are responsible for the welfare of the student body, looks after their interests, keeps an eye on them, and protects them from any harm that may arise.

That's why we say, with all sincerity:

"We are not the enemy, but your friend."

And so, may we hope, will the world.

"What's On Iowa's Mind:"

Benson Hall—The most active and exciting part of the Benson Hall recently has been a little thing that is not as well known to House Relations. With the coming of the fall season and the opening of the school year, Benson Hall has been working on the organization of the Benson Hall Band. The band is made up of the Benson Hall residents and is under the direction of Mr. Smith, the resident advisor. The band practices regularly and is scheduled to perform at several events throughout the year. They have performed at Benson Hall picnics, block parties, and other social events on campus.

Missoulian's Housing Trouble—

Missoulian's housing trouble was due to the fact that the German-British stalemate makes matters somewhat difficult for the Allied nations. In the meantime, various efforts are being made to improve conditions. The French government has been working on the problem, and various committees have been appointed to look into the situation. Unfortunately, the problem is not as simple as it may appear, and it will take time to find a solution.

ITALIAN LITERARY CLAIMS—

The Italian government has been making an effort to push their literary claims. They have been sending works to various countries, and they have been working to establish the Italian language as a major language. A Lesson in Rising in Filmland's Rankings

Filmland—Bobby Hoyt

Bobby Hoyt has been active in the film industry since the early days of silent movies. He began his career as an actor and soon became a director. He directed several successful films, including "Girl, Girl, Girl," which was nominated for an Oscar. Hoyt's biggest achievement came when he directed "The Birth of a Nation," which was both controversial and successful. Hoyt continued to direct films throughout his career, but he is best remembered for his work in the early days of cinema.

The Effect of Reading

"The Importance of Reading"

By HERMAN H. ALLEN

Reading is one of the most important habits that we can form. It is a way of life, a way of thinking, and a way of communicating. Reading is a way of gaining knowledge, understanding, and insight into the world around us. It is a way of learning new things, of expanding our horizons, and of understanding ourselves.

Support Surprise Pitching With Hitting

By DALE STAFFORD
DETROIT, Sept. 19 (AP)—The home-winning Detroit Tigers jumped over the Cleveland Indians today to carry a first-place tie with the Tigers into their all-important present series opening tonight in Detroit.

Lefty Al Smith, exponent of the powerful pitch, earned Detroit's second straight victory over the Indians with a 3-2 triumph over the Indians in the opener. Smith shut the Indians out for the fourth time in six games and did not allow a base or a hit in the ninth before he walked.
