Old Lyons Property Divided into Lots for Auction Sunday

Old Home Subject of Many Legends
Prior to Destruction

An article of 1914 in the Daily Iowan noted that the old Lyons property in Pleasant Valley was considered one of the most majestic homes in the county. It was a large, two-story mansion, with a cupola, and a veranda环绕ing the front of the house. The property was once a part of the Lyons estate, which was owned by John Lyons, a wealthy businessman. The house was later sold to a local family, who lived there for many years. The property has been divided into lots and will be auctioned off on Sunday. The old home is considered a historic landmark and is expected to bring a high price at auction.
