Local Auto Battled While Passing Through Storm Center

Tornado Sweeping From North
Wrecks 4 City Blocks at Victor

By DONALD GIRL

Sweeping down from the northwest, a devastating tornado swept through the center of town, bringing destruction in its wake. The storm was estimated to have reached a speed of 200 miles per hour.

The tornado touched down near the south end of the city, causing severe damage to homes and businesses. The wind was so powerful that it lifted cars off the ground and tossed them into the air.

In Victor, the tornado caused extensive damage, destroying several buildings and blowing out windows. The storm killed one person and left dozens injured.

The aftermath of the storm was a scene of chaos and destruction. The city was left without power, and residents were left to pick up the pieces of their lives.

THEIR FINEST HOUR

The speeches of Winston Churchill—warrior, Prime Minister of England, may well go down in history as the most inspiring and eloquent ever heard. The oratory of the British leader has done more to galvanize the world's war effort than any other public figure. Churchill's oratory has bound together the forces of freedom and has given hope to the nations who are fighting for their survival.

Churchill, speaking in the House of Commons in London, declared: "We shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the landing grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills. We shall never surrender."

Churchill's speeches were broadcast around the world, and his words of inspiration and support for the nation's war effort were heard by millions of people.

* * *

The British people have shown their strength and determination in the face of adversity. Churchill's speeches have been a source of encouragement and inspiration to all who are fighting for freedom.

* * *

The world is united in its support of the British people. The people of every nation are united in their determination to fight for freedom and to ensure that democracy prevails.

* * *

The speeches of Winston Churchill are a testament to the power of words and the importance of communication in times of crisis.

County Nurses Report Activity Of Past Year

Dr. Kate Dunn Talks To Assembled Group On Nutrition Trends

"Let's take a peak at Johnson county, gentle health service was the theme of the second annual county health dinner attended by more than 100 persons at the Iowa City Community building last night. A dr. (sic) named Dunbar, speech writer for the service of the year was presenting the viewing.

Concerned by Dr. Hannah and Late, Mr. Dunn report covered several diseases, genetic disease, tuberculosis, school construction, public school programs, school health programs, community health centers, medical service, mental health service, and the state health department.

Carrying out an intensive school health service, the report revealed 100 school teacher consultations, 504 health reports, 385 school nurses, 1,809 rapid vaccination reports, and 195 more for the city.

Observing an intensive program in the city of Iowa City, a woman's program and community service, Dr. Dunn reinforced his belief in the importance of education in the prevention of disease.

"The city of Iowa City has shown definite evidence of progress in the field of public health," Dr. Dunn said. "The school program has been expanded, and the city health department has been revitalized."
