SINGAPORE, April 24 (AP) -- Germans have reinforced their fortifications at Thermopolis, today strengthening the defense of Singapore and the Malayan peninsula against a surprise attack from the sea or land.

They came in a large transport which arrived in the port yesterday, with enough troops to come in tonight, it was reported today.

The central fortification includes an airfield and a battery. With the troops already in the area, it is feared they might come in tonight.

The transports include

Board Jobs Open, Says Kann

This Year's Worker Shortage Due to Draft, National Defense Jobs

An emergency shortage of laborers has been created this year due to the draft, said C. B. Kann, director of the workers' association. There are now only 15,000 workers available, he said, while last year there were 20,000.

The usual amount of students who will be employed is about 10 per cent, but last fall was not a very successful year for students.

Mrs. Kann, who is 28, and is a native of Hawaii, said that the shortage is creating a problem for the workers' association.
