Donets Basin Flanked, Nazis Claim

On "Iowa Club" Sees Football Films Tonight

Hawkeye-Wolverine, Iowa-Ohio Games Shown for Members

Members of "Iowa Club" will see the Iowa-Wolverine football game tonight for the first time this season. The game will be shown on the television screen at the University High. The Hawkeye-Wolverine game played in Ann Arbor, Michigan, has been broadcast by the Mutual Broadcasting System from the Michigan Bowl. The two teams were playing in the conference for Michigan, the University High, and the Iowa High.

The defense and restoration tasks undertaken by the Donets basin, a strategic industrial and transportation center of the Donets basin, are critically important both to the Soviet Union and to the rest of the world. The Donets basin has been the target of intense fighting for several weeks, with both sides vying for control of the region. The basin is known for its rich coal deposits, which are vital to the Soviet economy, and for its strategic location as a transportation hub.

PREPARE TO BOMBARD ATOMICS IN SUBSTERNANT LABORATORY

The atomic and biological laboratories have been set up in the Donets basin to carry out research on the atomic and biological weapons. These laboratories are equipped with the latest technology and are staffed by highly trained scientists. The research conducted here is aimed at developing new weapons and enhancing the existing ones.

Soviets Rush Troops To Front in Effort To Stem Nazi Drive

Soviet forces have rushed troops to the front in an effort to stem the Nazi drive in the Donets basin. The Soviets have launched a counteroffensive in the area, aiming to retake strategic positions and disrupt the Nazi supply lines.

Declare Ports Most Important Shipping Centers on Azov; Announce Staff of Ninth Russian Army Captured in Ukraine Drive

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BEIRUT—German forces advancing in a massive day-long offensive have flanked the Red Sea coastal Soviet ports by seizing the ports of Mariupol and Odespol, two of the most important ports in the Soviet Union. The German forces have cut off the Red Sea ports and are advancing on the Soviet forces. The Soviets have been forced to retreat and are fighting a rearguard action to hold the German forces at bay.
