As Montgomery’s Men

By DANIEL BLEVE

PRIME MINISTER CHURCHILL VISITED CATANIA yesterday, received a warm welcome from the Canadians stationed there and heard some unfavorable comments from British officers and men about their relations with the Italian civilians.

The Prime Minister was on a short trip to the Italian front, to inspect the progress of the Allied offensive in Sicily. The Canadian forces are reported to be in a strong position on the island, but there are indications that the Italian civilians are not as cooperative as the British officers and men would like to see.

Churchill was accompanied by General Montgomery, who is in charge of the British forces in Sicily. The two leaders conferenced with the Canadian commanders and received a report on the progress of the offensive.

Churchill was reported to be satisfied with the progress of the offensive and to have expressed his confidence in the Canadian forces. He was also said to have remarked that the Italian civilians were not as co-operative as expected.

The Canadian officers and men were reported to be exhilarated by the visit of the Prime Minister and to have expressed their appreciation of his support.

The visit of the Prime Minister was accompanied by a speech by General Montgomery, who expressed his confidence in the Canadian forces and his faith in the ultimate success of the Allied offensive in Sicily.

Nazi Military Leaders Realize War is Lost, Archduke Says

By DORES CAMPBELL

The military leaders of Ger­

FROM JAP MAGAZINE: U. S. PRISONERS IN CHINESE CAMP

TAKEN FROM A JAP PROPAGANDA MAGAZINE. This picture purportedly shows American prisoners as a result of the sinking of the U. S. S. Panay, which was attacked as it left the Yangtze. Although the story is true and comma-their war prison allowance after 107 prisoners had died of neglect and maltreatment—this picture shows several things as possible as by competent observers. For instance, the prisoners are not allowed to shave or cut their hair. They are using a two-man escape hatch in the very narrow boats. The prisoners are making some-handstands for the relief of boredom in the United States.
Brooklyn Uses Three Hurters

Rickey Gives Special Speech to Dodgers Before Game Begins

BOSTON (AP)—Branch Rickey, who bought the Brooklyn Dodgers, yesterday made his first public appearance in the city where the Pouty Dodgers were founded, but apparently all brokers will have to wait until tomorrow to place bets on the outcome of today’s game.

Rickey was in Boston to make a speech to the Brooklyn Dodgers, who are scheduled to play the Boston Bees today. Rickey was due to arrive in Boston at about 3 p.m. and was expected to speak at a meeting of the Brooklyn Dodgers later today.

Rickey, who is the owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said he was pleased with the team’s performance so far this season and was looking forward to seeing them play in Boston.

The Dodgers are currently leading the National League with a record of 35-20. Rickey said he was proud of the team and was confident they would continue to perform well.

Rickey also spoke about the importance of teamwork and cooperation in sports, and said he believed the Dodgers were a team of hard-working players who were dedicated to winning.

Rickey’s speech was well-received by the crowd, who were excited to see the Dodgers play in Boston. The game is expected to be a close one, with both teams vying for the top spot in the National League.

New York Giants

Claim Joe Medwick

From Bums for $7,500

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Medwick, who has been thriving in the minor leagues, has been claimed by the New York Giants. Medwick, who is currently playing for the New Orleans Pelicans, has been on a tear lately and has been hitting well in the minors.

The Giants have been looking for outfielders to add to their roster, and they are hoping Medwick can provide the power they are looking for. Medwick is hitting .327 with 12 home runs and 36 doubles this season.

The Giants are expected to make a decision on Medwick in the next few days. They will need to decide whether to call him up to the majors or keep him in the minors.

Rickey Talks Dodgers

Durocher is Manager

BOSTON (AP)—President Rickey said today that Brooklyn Dodgers President Branch Rickey would be the manager of the team for the remainder of the season.

Rickey said he made the decision after conferring with the team’s players and coaches. Rickey said he felt the team needed a new leader and he believed Durocher was the right man for the job.

Durocher has been with the Dodgers since 1946 and has been a valuable member of the organization. He has served as the team’s hitting coach and manager in the minor leagues.

Rickey said he was confident Durocher could lead the Dodgers to success this season and that he would give the team the best possible chance of winning a World Series.

The Dodgers are currently in third place in the National League with a record of 53-38. They are hoping to make a run for the division title in the second half of the season.

Will you write a letter to a Prisoner of War . . . tonight?

Maybe he is one of Jimmie Doolittle’s boys. Perhaps he was left behind when Bataan fell. Anyway, he’s an American, and he hasn’t had a letter in a long, long time.

And when you sit down to write, tell him why you didn’t buy your share of War Bonds last pay day—if you didn’t.

"Dear Joe," you might say, "the old topcoat was getting kind of threadbare, so I . . . ."

No, cross it out. Joe might not understand about the topcoat, especially if he’s shivering in a damp Japanese cell.

Let’s try again. "Dear Joe, I’ve been working pretty hard and haven’t had a vacation in over a year, so . . . ."

Hell, better cross that out, too. They don’t ever get vacations where Joe’s staying.

"Well, what are you waiting for? Go ahead, write the letter to Joe. Try to write it, anyhow.

But mister, if somehow you find you can’t finish that letter, will you, at least, do this for Joe? Will you up the amount of money you’re putting into your Payroll Savings Plan—so that you’ll be buying your share of War Bonds from here on in? And will you—for Joe’s sake—start doing it right away?
