Action Taken In Redskins-Bears Leaders Crash

Layden Fines Pro Owners

Redskins' Marshall, Bears' Brighthouse, Fined $500 Each

WASH., D. C. (AP)—Bobby Layden, Washington Redskins' athletic director, fined Sid Brighthouse, Chicago Bears' general manager, $500 on charges of 'smoking' a football player, yesterday afternoon in Landover, Md., it was announced by Commissioner Bert Bell.

Layden, in the course of his action, cited Brighthouse and stated that no further disciplinary action would be taken against the Bears.

The fine, which is the second of the season for Layden, is the result of an incident which occurred last night in the dressing room at the half-time interval of the annual Thanksgiving Day football game between Washington and Chicago. Layden said that Brighthouse had brought up the subject of a football player who had been 'smoking' in the dressing room, and that Layden had told him that the player would be fined.

Brighthouse, in turn, had brought up the subject of Layden's fine and had accused him of 'smoking' a football player, Layden said.

Layden fined each man $500 for the incident, and said that he would take no further action against the Bears.

Layden said that the fine would be paid to the New York Post, which is the official newspaper of the National Football League.

The fine is the second of the season for Layden, who fined Brighthouse $500 in August for 'smoking' a football player.
