American Fighters Lose Only 4 Planes

No Enemy Interceptors Tried to Hold Attack. Many Japs Stovred

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Rome (AP) — Allied aircraft today wiped out about 40 enemy planes without loss to Allied planes. This was one of the biggest attacks on enemy airfields since the Allied forces entered Italy. The assault was made by American and British planes based on the island of Crete, where the Japs had been landing since last week.

JAPS Refuse—Prisoner Supplies

Washington (AP) — An American Red Cross officer in Rome today said it was decided by a conference at the Allied headquarters in Rome that a new effort would be made to secure a halt in the flow of prisoners from Italy to Germany. The Japs have been steadily streaming into Germany, and the Red Cross officer said that the Japs have been more successful in this than in any other method of supplying prisoners. The Japs are believed to be using the prisoners for labor in Germany.

Monarchist Politics In Italy—Again

Lawrence C. Gunderson

Friday night's debate in which King Vittorio Emanuele, represented by Naples' Neville Chamberlain, was an easy take-down, and the Fascist regime was finally undone, was the talk of the city. The outcome was considered by many to be a defeat for the government.

The debate was held in the auditorium of the University of Iowa, and was attended by a large audience. The topic was "The Monarchist Movement in Italy." The Fascists were represented by Chief Minister Benito Mussolini, who was portrayed as a strong, unyielding dictator. The Monarchists were represented by King Vittorio Emanuele, who was portrayed as a weak, indecisive monarch. The debate was conducted by a panel of experts, including Professor Luigi Einaudi of the University of Rome and Professor Giuseppe Luzzatti of the University of Turin.

The debate was a strong attack on the Fascists, and was received with enthusiasm by the audience. The Fascists were portrayed as a dangerous force, and the Monarchists were praised for their courage and patriotism.

The debate was well received by the audience, and was considered by many to be a success for the Monarchists.

NEW YORK (AP) — Bruno Húmero, the big boy who really plays the game, is the New York Giants' center. He's 280 pounds, the heaviest among the line, but he's fast. In 1920, the Giants played the Detroit Tigers in the first game of the World Series. The Giants won, 4-1. Húmero did his job well. He's known as a hard worker, a willing worker.

The Giants' 1919 season was marked by poor weather. The games were played in the rain. Húmero played well in the rain. He was one of the best centers in the league. He's known for his work ethic. He's a hard worker, a willing worker. He's a good player.

Proved To Be Almost Duplicate Of Last Night's Bigger Win

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Wisconsin handed Indiana's hapless football team what looked like another humbling defeat last night at Memorial Stadium. The Badgers, who had played well all season, ended the Hoosiers' 2-8-7 record with a 51-38 triumph.

The game was a repeat of last night's game at the same stadium. The Hoosiers were completely outgunned. Wisconsin piled up 24 points in the first half alone. A 14-point lead in the second half helped seal the Hoosiers' doom.

The Iowa Pre-Flight school basketball team took its third straight loss last night as the favored college team was defeated by the Navy in a 75-60 game.

The game was a repeat of last night's game at the same stadium. The Navy had played well all season, but they were completely outgunned. Wisconsin piled up 24 points in the first half alone. A 14-point lead in the second half helped seal the Hoosiers' doom.
Mary Jane Neville, Donald Ercord Win Final Speech Contest

Mary Jane Neville, All of East Monticello, and Donald Ercord, All of Decorah City, were voted winners of the final speech contest of the Iowa Union. Neville took first place with a speech on "Life in the Railroad Builders," while Ercord, with a score of 96, was voted second with his speech, "The Character of the American Farmer." A total of 72 speeches were made in the two rounds of the contest.

Joseph Korson, All of Decorah, third place, and Allan E. Kendall, All of Oskaloosa, fourth place, made their speeches on "How to Keep the Soil Standing," and "The Need for the World's Understanding of the American Farmer." The winners were presented with $100, $75, and $50 prizes.

Girl Scouts, Brownies Plan Holiday Parties, Knit Afghan Squares

Girl Scouts and Brownies at the University of Iowa have been planning many interesting parties and activities for Christmas. The girls are busy making Christmas wreaths, Christmas cards, and Christmas decorations for the major and minor celebrations. They are also planning a special party for the dictionary department, to be held in the dictionary room on Dec. 12, at which the girls will be presented with their dictionaries.

l. C. Boy Scouts 'Take Over'  THIS IS THE LIFE, FELLAS Mayor Jim Wiegand Completes ’His Day’ As Head of Iowa City

With a boulevard route and a high grip, Jim, Mayor Jim Wiegand set down in second-story window after he kicked the lid of office in mayor’s-five-day in Iowa City. Remember, he has been kicked around almost his entire term. After heing the desk, the officials retired to the second floor, as Jim and the Mayor’s Office. There was a few hours spent by the trainsmen, before the City Clerk Bill Odell, the front office of the city hall, and Chief Police Inspector at the police station. The Major City, Front Room, began and ended with Jim being in the front office and the others in the back office. Then there is a slight indication that the Mayor is in trouble. After a short meeting with the managers was made for the Mayor of the day, there was a few hours spent by the trainsmen. What Jim Ingram, driving Bob New- stantion.
