The following nominees will appear on the ballot: Kenneth Lapp, Al of Women's, St. Kitts; John B. O'Meara, Al of Marine; Maurice B. Schenk, Al of Commerce; Barbara Gau, Al of German; Robert Jones, Al of Music; and Dorothea Grundy, Al of English.

The student candidates for the 15 vacancies will be announced next week.

New USD Director Finished Tour, Course

James B. Sholly, Chi Omega, who arrived in Iowa City this week, recently completed a three-week orientation course at Carleton College and attended several USD centers throughout the country.

"I haven't seen any place in my state which was as good as this in many respects as we have here, and I believe representing the size of the city," said Sholly regarding the local center.

A mock bar was opened this week and the board of student publications was established for the university. Later, the local center will be opened.

Other plans include the establishment of additional centers in the southern part of Iowa, in addition to the current center in Waterloo.

Student Art Salon Exhibit Begins Today
