Dubuque Coroner Issues 2nd Subpoena for Attorney General

John Rankin, a Democrat, was arrested at his home on May 8th for his role in the investigation of the death of George Brown, a 19-year-old man who was found dead on April 29th. Brown was working as a laborer in the city when he died. Rankin had been the coroner for 10 years and was re-elected earlier this year. The coroner's office is currently under investigation for its handling of the case. Rankin has been served with a second subpoena, which demands his attendance at a hearing on June 2nd. The hearing is expected to focus on the circumstances surrounding Brown's death, including the cause of death and the coroner's role in the investigation. Rankin has not yet responded to the subpoena or the charges.

8-Year-Old Dies in Confidence Conference

Clinical Uses Group Living to Aid Disorders

Attending the summer camp last month were 928 children, including 8-year-old Kay Gilligan, who was the youngest camper. Gilligan was found dead in her tent on the first day of camp. An autopsy revealed that she died from a heart attack. Gilligan had been attending the camp for three years and was a favorite among the other children. She was described as a happy and outgoing child who loved to play sports and was always ready to help others. The camp is a non-profit organization that provides a safe and nurturing environment for children with special needs. They offer a variety of programs, including group living, which helps children develop social skills and build confidence. The camp is located in a beautiful natural setting, providing a great opportunity for children to learn and grow. The loss of Gilligan is a sad reminder of the importance of providing support and resources for children with special needs.

1. Rescued in Boatswain’s Chair

   Two women were rescued from a boat on the Iowa River near West Des Moines. The women, who were on a charter boat, were caught in a sudden storm and were in danger of being swept away. The boat's captain, a experienced sailor, managed to get the women to safety and they were taken to a nearby shore. The women were later interviewed by the police and no charges were filed. The Iowa River is a popular destination for boating and fishing, and it is important for boaters to be prepared for unexpected weather conditions.

Americans’ Hitting, Pitching Power Sink Nationals, 12-0

BY GAYLE TALBOT

Boston (AP)—With a combination of hitting and pitching today that was a rare sight for the American League, the Boston Red Sox defeated the Washington Senators, 12-0, with a powerful attack in both areas.

The Boston hitters could not have been more effective, as they scored runs like a machine, hitting for both power and average. The pitching by Cleveland ace Bob Feller was also excellent, allowing only four hits in nine innings.

The victory clinched the Red Sox’s lead in the American League standings. Cleveland, the defending champions, will be hard pressed to keep up.

American League teams have been known to dominate the National League, but today’s performance was a reminder of the talent and skill present in the American League.

V.F.W. Team

BY DON MALLOY

The V.F.W. American Legion baseball team of Iowacity defeated the New Orleans Oil and Gas team, 10-3, in the first game of the City Loop on Wednesday.

The game was held at the V.F.W. Field in Iowacity and was a close contest. The V.F.W. team had the upper hand throughout, scoring six runs in the third inning to take the lead.

The New Orleans team mounted a comeback in the fourth inning, scoring three runs to cut the deficit to 6-3. However, the V.F.W. team pulled away in the fifth inning with a four-run outburst.

The V.F.W. team, led by pitcher John Fothergill, played strong defense and limited the Oil and Gas offense. The V.F.W. team will continue its City Loop schedule against the Chicago American Legion team on Friday.
