Government Revokes Order Limiting Size of Bread Loaves; Price Effect Uncertain

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government revoked an order that set a limit on the size of bread loaves. The order, which was implemented last month, was intended to help reduce inflation by limiting the amount of bread that could be produced. The government said the order would be lifted due to a decrease in the demand for bread. However, the impact on prices remains uncertain.

Justice Department to Study Coal Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department announced plans to investigate a proposed coal mining agreement in the state of Pennsylvania. The agreement would allow for the expansion of coal mining operations, but the Justice Department is concerned about potential antitrust violations.

3,000 Turn Out for Pep Rally

By NANCY R. BURKE

The Associated Press
A plane on the ground is a poor substitute for a plane in the air, an intermittent one for a plane continuously in flight. The greater our power on land, the more we must fear the enemy, and the less we can afford to lose by any interval of leisure or dereliction.

In the same spirit, we must be constantly ready to meet by force our enemies on land and sea. This is the lesson of 1895, when Japan, after five centuries of isolation, went up against China, and within four months, Japan emerged victorious. It was not her industries that did it, but her policy of training and discipline. Labor, science, and art are great, but they cannot stand against the iron will of the soldier.

Japan gave us a message that should be most famous. She said, "We have tried your methods, and they are worse for you than our own." We can be at peace and have life and liberty only when the work of our enemies is stopped. We can be at peace and have life and liberty only when the war has come to an end. The war is not over. It is only a storm in the distant ocean. The enemy is not yet defeated. We must prepare for another war. We must guard against the danger of another war. We must be constantly ready to meet by force our enemies on land and sea.

The lesson of 1895 is the lesson of the present. It is the lesson of the future. It is the lesson of peace and happiness and life and liberty.

The lesson of 1895 is the lesson of the present. It is the lesson of the future. It is the lesson of peace and happiness and life and liberty.

There is nothing to be gained by the enemies of peace. There is nothing to be gained by the enemies of life and liberty. There is nothing to be gained by the enemies of our country. There is nothing to be gained by the enemies of our civilization.

The lesson of 1895 is the lesson of 1945. It is the lesson of 1945.

The lesson of 1895 is the lesson of 1945. It is the lesson of 1945.

On the last year the University of Notre Dame was defeated in the most lopsided game in the history of the University of Iowa!

TEAM OF '39 DID IT!
"THIS IS IT"

The fans at the grid iron today will probably view Russ Benda, Emlen Tunnell, Dick Woodard and Jim Lawrence in close teamwork with Earl Banks, Bill Key, Dave Day and Roger Kane. The entire team will be in there giving the Irish a hard time all the way—the Iowa team is united—they know "this is the one," and they're ready! Be on hand at game time this afternoon and back the Ironmen of Iowa. Game starts at 2 o'clock.

On the last day of November 11, 1929 before 46,000 fans in the Iowa Stadium, the Iowa Ironmen, with Kinnick as his first year as coach, were rolling against Notre Dame. Notre Dame had a 7-game winning streak, Iowa had lost only to Michigan—a shade which reflects a similar light upon this big Iowa team this year.

It was the number 24 in action that year, Nile Kinnick, inspirational leader of the Hawks who will be remembered. With three minutes to play in the second quarter, the Irish tried to run the ball into the end zone. Steve Sinko fumbled as he was hit on the 4-yard line and Iowa recovered. Kinnick switched from left halfback to right, found a hole and scored, afterwards dropping the kick to score 7-0 at the half.

In the third quarter, with about 14 minutes to play, Notre Dame marched from the 50 to the 6-yard line in six plays and Mill Piepul scored the touchdown. The goal was missed by Lou Zanini and Notre Dame practically couldn't do any damage as time ran out. Iowa's defense was aided by Kinnick and put to the Notre Dame 7 with two minutes to play. The rest is history.

The Hawks came up to the Big One with four wins in five games and 93 points to opponents' 89. By rushing Iowa has 1,225 yards, averaging 4.6 per trial and the passing game, used sparingly in recent games, has 207 yards in 19 completions in 46 trials.

Bob Weirner has taken the rushing leadership with 281 yards for 5.2 average, followed by Bob Smith with 277 for 4.3. Tonnell has 228 for 5.6, and Bob Sullivan 165 for 6.8. The leading score after the Indiana game is Sullivan with 22 points, and Tonnell next with 18.

The experts are really going to pull away. We disagree in favor of the ten teams-which-look-tough-in-the-final-five-games by Sunday.

The "average man" for this week is Dick Lattin, a graduate student in political science, who talked to us what this football season has been all about.

Lattin:

"This is the era of government sports where coaches and players are given the ego trips they need. In the United States the government does a lot more than just supply funds. It helps mold the players, and this is why the game is so popular. These government programs have been going on for years, and as a result, the college teams, which used to be the equals of the professional teams, are no longer capable of competing."

U-11 Wins "Touchdown Battle"

By Don Maloney

Following the backfield ended when U-111 high-plugged with West Point in a 20-10 victory. The Bulldogs, ranked ninth in the country, caught the Black Knights for the third time in the season, the first two meetings were won by U-111, 10-7.

The first half was a tough Bulldogs battle against West Point. The team staged a strong drive to the 24, but then had to settle for a 10 yard field goal.

The Black Knights started the first half with Central Illinois over Iowa, 24-14.

The first score of the game was put in by 17 yard and even with Harper carrying the ball, the ball was fumbled at the six. Helm plowed over for the touchdown, which was good for the point.
