High Farm Price Similar to the '2

By ED MURPHY

The inflationary prices of farm products continued to show a tendency to rise today when the President's advisers announced a $100 per acre for a grain crop.

The situation, while not as critical as it was a year ago, is still one of serious concern.

Prices for other crops, including cotton, have also risen to levels that are causing concern.

This price is the result of increased demand for farm products, both at home and abroad, and a limited supply of commodities.

The American Farm Bureau Federation has been calling for higher prices for farmers, and this increase is a step in that direction.

For one thing, when the farmers are able to sell their crops at higher prices, they are able to invest more in farm improvements and equipment.

Moreover, a better income for farmers means a better income for all of us, because we depend on the farmer to provide the food we need.

The上涨的农产品价格

这无疑是农民打的一场胜仗。在1921和1924年，每年约有1200万美国农民非常活跃。他们参加罢工和抗议行动，争取更高的农产品价格。

据Goodwin报道，这些农民的斗争取得了胜利。他们曾在1922年和1923年进行罢工，争取提高牛奶和肉类的价格。他们的努力最终得到了政府的响应，通过了《史蒂文森-休斯法案》。

在这一阶段，农民的斗争还体现在争取改善工作条件和提高补贴。他们呼吁政府对农业进行干预，以保证农民的收入。

“这是一场历史性的斗争，”Goodwin说，“农民们表现出极大的决心和毅力，他们的努力最终得到了回报。”

Letters to the Editor

The Iowan Readers Forum

A letter received today in the office of the Daily Iowan is an excellent example of the paper's editorial policy of encouraging letters from readers.

The letter, written by a member of the Iowan Readers Forum, discusses the importance of free speech and the need for open discussion on important issues.

We welcome letters to the editor, as they provide an opportunity for readers to express their views on the news and events of the day.

Hawklets Clash With Burlington Tonight

Don Angier, Savage lead powerful Greyhound Attack

Iowa City High's aggressive Linebacker Bob Smith gets ready to make the play in Saturday night's game when the two teams met in the opening game of the season.

Toasr's big play alone couldn't save the Hawks from a big game loss to the Tigers.

The Hawks, essentially still in the game at half-time, were swamped by the Iowas' six-on-three. The Hawks' defense managed to limit the big play, but the Iowas' six-on-three proved too much for the Hawks.

Iowa City High's defense was impressive, holding the Iowas to just 140 yards of offense. However, their offense struggled, managing just 130 yards of their own.

But more than stopping the Iowas' strong ground game, the Hawks' defense was also porous in the passing game, giving up a total of 420 yards through the air.

On defense, the Hawks were able to stop the Iowas' running game, holding them to just 70 yards on the ground. However, their secondary struggled, allowing the Iowas to complete 25 of 42 passes for 350 yards.

The Hawks will need to shore up their defense this week as they host Burlington High School. The Shocks are coming off a 35-7 win over the Indians and will be looking for their second straight win.

Hawklets' head coach Larry Johnson has been impressed with his team's performance so far, saying, "They've been working hard and it's showing on the field."
