Foster Calls for Religious Cooperation Between North, South American Faiths

The conference is being held in an effort to promote greater understanding and cooperation between the two regions."
An Open Letter to 3,000 Methodist Students at the State University of Iowa

A Question Box was placed at the front and rear exits of the Methodist Church a few Sundays back and students were asked to drop in their questions. What would they like the minister to preach about?

The questions surprised me. Here are some of them: Do you believe in an infallible Bible? In the Virgin Birth? In an literal heaven and hell? Is the Fall of Man? In the resurrection of the body? In an final Judgement Day? In the Second Coming of Christ? In the Trinity? Was Christ more than a good man?

Alright—we shall devote a dozen Sundays to straight-from-the-shoulder answers, to those questions in the light of what the best accredited scholarship believes to-day.

We admit that the simple, lovely, dynamic personality of Jesus has been enshrined and almost buried beneath a load of man-made theological mumbo-jumbo. Let us examine the evidence with open, honest, questing minds and see if we can get back to Him! Our answers will not be "orthodox" but they will be forthright.

Tomorrow's theme—"Your Creative Mind."

There will be two services every Sunday at 9:30 and 11 A.M. but please come to the first service if possible. The second service is already full—the first, three-fourths full.

Cordially yours,

ARMY, NOTRE DAME READY FOR BATTLE

By DAVE BALFOUR

NEW YORK (AP) — Even the weather-beaten Irish will have a fighting chance of securing the Big Nine title tonight when they face Army at Soldier Field.

Any possibility that the climatic spectacle would be ruined by a snowstorm was dispelled by the official announcement that the game would be started on time.

Notre Dame will face its third straight conference bout, and Army will try to keep its unbeaten conference record intact. Army, the Big Nine's leading team, will have to win tonight to remain in contention for the title.

The weather forecast for downtown Chicago, site of the game, is expected to be clear, with temperatures in the upper 30s.

The game will be played at 5 p.m., with the Big Nine championship on the line.

The Notre Dame Black Knights, led by quarterback Jim Walsh, will be attempting to defend their 1954 title. Army, led by fullback Tom Gorrie, will be seeking its first Big Nine championship since 1950.

The game is a part of the Big Nine's annual series of games against Army, which has been played since 1929.
