ILLINI STAGGER HAWKS

Moss Tosses, Three Breaks Ruin Iowa Grid Hopes, 35-12

By CHAD BROOKS

Falding Illinois official warned Iowa fans yesterday that Joe Steining and his Illini were no longer brilliant peak-making units. "And by hising, Dr. Bobbitt Anderson's worst fears for this Nebraska game will reach a new climax. The Illini's impressive defense was not enough against the Huskers' offense. Now, Nebraska's offense is strong enough to put the Illini in a real bind."

The weather today was fair and somewhat warmer, with a high temperature of 83 degrees and a low of 60."

The Record

The Hawks, by contrast, were 12-7 and 11-7 in the last period. They shot over 55% of the time, due to their superior shooting. The Hawkeyes' defense was up to par with the Illini's, holding them to 35 points. The two teams played a close game until the end, but the Hawkeyes emerged victorious in the end.

Missouri's 48-56 victory with Denali followed Baton Rouge's 62-67 victory with Ohio State. The Hawkeye's final game of the day was against Michigan, who were 10-6-10. The game was a close one, but the Hawkeyes emerged victorious with a score of 78-75.

The Hawkeyes were led by Johnny Trice, who scored 37 points and 11 rebounds. His performance was instrumental in the team's victory. Trice was named the MVP of the game.

The Hawkeyes will now face off against Penn State on Saturday, who are 9-8. This game is expected to be a close one, but the Hawkeyes are favored to win. The Hawkeyes will need to focus on defense to secure their victory.

Yanks Need One More Win

By GAYLE TALBOT

Rex Barney, the Yankee pitcher, threw a complete game for the Yanks yesterday. He pitched a 5-1 victory over the Dodgers, giving the Yanks a 4-1 lead in the series.

The Yanks' bats were hot, and they scored four runs in the first inning. The Dodgers' defense was decent, but they couldn't keep up with the Yanks' offense.

The Yanks' pitching was also strong, with Ralph Branca getting the win. He pitched seven innings, allowing only one run.

With the win, the Yanks now lead the series 4-1. They will look to clinch the series with a win today. The game starts at 1:30 p.m., and the Yanks are favored to win.

Wallace to Palestine NEW YORK (AP) - Henry Wallace, former vice president of the United States, announced yesterday that he would fly to Palestine on Oct. 7, if it is safe to do so. "This is a very important trip, and I am looking forward to it," he said.

The trip will be a goodwill mission to Palestine. Wallace has been a supporter of the Palestinian cause for many years.

This is also the first time in over a year that the two teams have met. The Yanks and Dodgers will meet again on Oct. 21, with the Yanks still leading the series 4-1. The game will start at 1:30 p.m., and it is expected to be a close one.

The Yanks are favored to win, but the Dodgers will be fighting hard to come back. The game will be a test of both teams' abilities, and the winner will likely make a strong bid for the World Series.

Thinks Hawks Played Well, Breaks Costly

By NICK TURRELL

All was well—words were few and far between. There was a smile, but it was tinged with satisfaction. There was a sense of satisfaction, but the overall impression was one of satisfaction.

The Iowa eleven broke their losing streak by 19-7 over the University of Nebraska, yesterday. The Hawks dominated the Cornhuskers throughout the afternoon, overcoming a two-point deficit in the first quarter to score 15 unanswered points in the second half. The victory was a welcome return to form for the Initializing eleven, who had struggled in recent weeks.

The Hawks dominated both on offense and defense, with quarterback Bob Ingwersen throwing for 225 yards and four touchdowns. Fullback Dave Sensenbaugh rushed for 100 yards and added two more touchdowns. The defense, led by linebacker Bob Lujack, shut down the Nebraska rushing attack, allowing just 31 yards on the ground.
