THE LAST WORD
In the capital, seven students were arrested after a prolonged protest against the student council, which they claimed was corrupt and unrepresentative.

The council said it would not tolerate such demonstrations and arrested the students.

The students were later released and the protest continued.

Sixteen Days of 'Communist Infiltration'

More people in the United States have turned Communist in the last 10 days than New York Broadway ever hoped for. The invasion of Communism has been so successful that New York City now has a Communist "movement" that would place the totalitarian philosophy of Karl Marx right in the heart of the "tide of communism which has been sweeping Europe over the past few years. The movement has already spread to the heart of Europe, and it is expected to spread to the heart of the United States in the near future.

The Communist movement in New York City is being led by a man named John McGalliard, who is reported to be the most devoted and knowledgeable Communist in the United States. He has been active in the Communist Party for the past 10 years and is now considered one of the leaders of the movement.

It is estimated that there are at least 100,000 members of the Communist Party in New York City, and it is feared that the movement will spread to other major cities in the United States. The move-
Food Boss Rejects ‘End Poultryless Thursday’ Plan

Another Try Promised by Poultry Men

WASHINGTON (AP)—Food Boss Charles Morganstern said Thursday that he was prepared to offer another proposal for ending the current Poultryless Thursday, but added that it would be a long time before he would bring it back.

"We think it will be acceptable," he said, "but we need to see more details about how the program would work before we can be confident it will succeed."

Morganstern was one of several poultry producers who were scheduled to meet with government officials later in the week to discuss the possibility of extending the Poultryless Thursday program.

The program, which was launched in July 2022, has been controversial since its inception. Critics have argued that it is unnecessary and that it fails to address the root causes of the problem.

"The hope is that by continuing the program, we can move closer to a solution," Morganstern said. "But we need to be realistic about what is possible within the current framework."

Morganstern said that he would continue to work with the government and other stakeholders to find a solution that works for all parties involved.

Iowa Citizens Sworn in—
'The Big Dipper'
—Twenty Years Ago

By M.D. WILKES

Iowa Citizens Union has been concerned about building a new swimming pool in the city. They had just passed a bond issue for that purpose. But the money had been so badly handled that the work was not going too well. Then the plans were all changed, and the voters were asked to vote again on the new money. The pool was started, and it was an instant success. The next year they voted to build a new pool, and this time they did it right. The pool was filled and opened, and now the voters are happy and the pool is being used.

Community Church Has First Service

Rev. Donald G. Hilt conducted the first service of the newly formed Community Church. The service took place in the old home of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hilt. The service was well attended, and a committee was appointed to find a permanent home for the church.

Martin Urges UMT Passage

"Shake a hand with a friend," was the advice given by Rev. Joseph E. Smith (Rep., Iowa). Last week, he outlined his plans for the UMT, which he described as a "friendlier" and "more democratic" organization.

"The key to UMT is education," he said. "We need to educate people about what UMT can mean to their lives."

Smith said that he was confident that UMT would be a success. "I believe that UMT will become the voice of the people," he said. "We need to have a voice that is strong enough to speak out for the people of this country."

"I'm a Chesterfield fan because they really satisfy," said Barbara Stansby in the Warner Bros. picture "Cry Wolf."
