Body of Drowning Victim, 17, Recovered from Iowa River

The body of Harold D. Overman, 17, missing from his home in 123 Y., was found in the Iowa River near the west end of the Burlington city docks yesterday. Police and firemen searched play areas below Hill Ford before the body was spotted by a passerby.

A lifeguard in one of the victim's pockets was English but George C. Calahan, a member, said the body was identified as the victim. Harold had been found by a passerby.

The search was extensive and lasted for two days and was continued for two to the north end of the building.

Goal Ruled Ineligible Butt From Prom Date

WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP)—Prom dress is not in favor at Seneca College, where an official ruled yesterday that a young woman who had worn a dress to her prom had violated the college's rules and would not be allowed to participate in the prom.

A dress worn to the prom must be at least 10 inches above the knee and must be conservative in design. The woman who wore the dress to the prom was ruled ineligible to participate.

Hawks Go to Purdue Today

Approximately 21 Iowa baseball players will leave with Goodhue tomorrow morning for Purdue for three conference games with the Boilermakers.

The Boilermakers have not been beaten in both leagues and are a tough enough team to take 21 to the plate and 14 will be enough to win a game.

The first game is scheduled for tomorrow at 9 a.m. in West Lafayette, Indiana.

The Hawks scored 11 runs in the second inning, which led to a win over Purdue in the first game. This was followed by a 5-2 win over Illinois.

Rumors are current that Purdue is a team to watch closely in the Big Ten conference.

Stephens Leads Red Sox Win

BOSTON (AP) — Tommy Stephens drove in five runs with a bases loaded grand slam home run off Stottlemyre in the ninth inning to lead the Red Sox to a 13-12 victory over the Indians.

RABBY's booth was one of only two on the first floor of the Student Union. He has a ready made "counter" to take orders and to cash the money. Both booths sell "Yum Yum" and "Garbage"..."Yum Yum" is a mixture of rice, beans, cheese, chilies, etc. "Garbage" is also a rice dish, but is a bit less spicy. Prices range from 10 cents to 25 cents per order. The "Yum Yum" is recommended for those who prefer a sweeter taste. The "Garbage" is a bit more spicy and less sweet. Both dishes are served in a small metal bowl, and are typically eaten with a spoon.

George Lloyd, the UI student who operates the booth, enjoys interacting with the customers. He says that he likes to "get to know" the people who come to his booth. He also enjoys the challenge of preparing the food quickly and efficiently. He plans to continue operating the booth throughout the school year.

Students enjoy the convenience of the booth. It is located in a high traffic area of the Student Union, making it easy to find. The food is also reasonably priced, which makes it a popular choice for students on a budget. Overall, the booth is a great addition to the Student Union, and provides a tasty and affordable option for students to grab a quick meal.

How to protect your child against Cancer... America's most dreaded disease

Today Cancer strikes in one of every two American families. Have you got your son or daughter better protected than yourincludes prevention? The answer is no. The best defense against Cancer begins at the moment of conception. Preventive measures are essential. They must be started at the earliest possible stage of life.

Children are not invincible, so the time to act is now. Begin with vitamins. A balanced diet rich in vitamins, particularly vitamin C and A, can help prevent many types of Cancer. Drink plenty of water and avoid sugary drinks. Exercise regularly and get enough sleep.

Your child's health is in your hands. Do not let Cancer strike your family. Act now to protect your child's future.
