WOODEY HERMAN AND "RINGO" COLE take time out between rehearsals in "talk shop" in the Iowa Union. The one-night stand at 8 PM Friday night was one of the last performances to be given in this season. They will split up on a contract package until next month.

Here for Concert—

Herman May Break up Present Band

By BETTY REEK

About 50 Iowa students are here in the city and will participate in the weekly "Talk Shop" sessions at the Union. Herman, the present director of the University's marching band, says he will break up the present band and replace it with a smaller one. Herman will continue in his present position at the University.

The annual meeting of the student council will take place on Monday, November 19th, in room 16B, Armory. All students are invited to attend.

Educators to Hold Conference at SUI

The State University of Iowa will hold a two-day conference on educational administration and supervision. The conference will be held on Monday and Tuesday, November 19th and 20th, respectively.

Bucks, California Clinch Rose Bowl Bids

Bears Smother Indians, 33-14

PROVING no exception to the rule that football is a team game, the Buffaloes were outscored 20-12 by the fifth-ranked Bruins, but they were not the only ones who surprised the fans in the Rose Bowl.

The game was stopped in the first quarter after Michigan's Indian mascot kicked the ball back to the Buffaloes. The Wolverine beat the Ohio State Buckeyes 20-14.

Ohio, Wolves Battle to 7-7 Tie, Deadlock for Big Ten Crown

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) -- A game after Ohio State beat the University of Michigan 19-7, the Wolverines scored first but the Buckeyes came back to tie the game 7-7.

The Ohio State game was a close one, with both teams showing strong defense. The Buckeyes had the upper hand early in the game, but the Wolverines fought back to tie it up in the second quarter.

Purdue Downs Indiana, For Oaken Bucket, 14-6

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) -- A short cut for Purdue's John Kinskey at the end of the third quarter helped the Boilermakers roll to a 14-6 victory over Indiana.

Purdue overcame a 6-0 Indiana lead to score 14 points in the final two minutes of the game. The victory gave Purdue the Oaken Bucket, a trophy given to the winner of the annual game between the two teams.

Iowa Finest We Have Seen: Leahy

Dr. Anderson Also Praises Hawk

By LELAND OLSON

SOUTH BEND, Ind. -- It was the finest game displayed by the Fighting Irish this season, according to a University of Notre Dame official who had the game.

The Irish demolished the Penn Quakers 55-14, setting up a showdown with the University of Southern California in the national championship game.

Purcell, a Notre Dame official, had the game and said it was the finest game he had ever seen.

"This was the finest game we have seen," Purcell said. "The Irish showed great teamwork and played with great intensity."
