Rain Dampens Holiday Spirits; Death Toll Low as '49 Ends

CHICAGO (UP) — A grey day ushered out the old year in most of the nation's grand celebrations and a low holiday atmosphere of gloom, but there was bright feeling in some areas.

The Chicago weather was cool and dreary, but there was no snow or rain. The temperature was about 38 degrees, and the wind was blowing from the north.

The city was crowded with people who were enjoying the holiday atmosphere.

Coal Industry Says Miners May Start New Strike Tuesday

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The coal industry officials said Saturday that a new strike may start Tuesday in Illinois and other states.

They said that the cost of living had increased since last year, and that the miners were looking for a better wage.

The United Mine Workers' union said that it was willing to negotiate with the coal companies, but that it wanted a higher wage.

The coal companies said that they were willing to negotiate, but that they wanted to keep their prices low.

The strike would affect about 1 million miners.

Des Moines 8 — A protest march was held Saturday in Des Moines, with about 2,000 people joining in.

The march was organized by the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations, and it was supported by several other labor unions.

The marchers called for an end to the strike of coal miners.

The strike began last week, and it has affected about 1 million miners.

New Apartments Open To Married Students

The University of Iowa has opened a new apartment complex for married students.

The complex consists of 100 units, each with two bedrooms and two bathrooms.

The apartments are located in the heart of the university campus, and they are available to married students who meet certain requirements.

The rent is $50 per month, and the apartments are furnished.

The complex is named after the late Dr. John R. Williams, who was a professor of medicine at the university.
