McCarthy Backers Pegged —

TODD

The half-dozen men who comprise the McCarthy backers are not listed as being connected with any political party. They are members of the National Farmers Union, the American Farm Bureau Federation, the American Legion, the V.F.W., and the American Legion Auxiliary. They are all veterans of World War II and have been active in political affairs since then. They were instrumental in organizing the group and continue to be its leaders.

The group is composed of the following members:

1. William H. Miller, 63, a farmer from the town of Waubee, Wisconsin.
2. James A. Smith, 66, a farmer from the town of Marshfield, Wisconsin.
4. Richard F. W. Johnson, 58, a farmer from the town of Menomonee, Wisconsin.
5. Albert J. Schell, 62, a farmer from the town of Greenfield, Wisconsin.

The group meets on the first and third Saturdays of each month at the American Legion Hall in the town of Waubee. They discuss current events and political issues, and they work to support candidates who agree with their viewpoints.

The group has been active in promoting the views of the American Farmer Anti-Communist League, which was formed in 1947. They have been involved in numerous political campaigns, including the 1948 and 1952 presidential elections. They have also been active in supporting the American Legion and the V.F.W.

The group is currently working to support the candidacy of President Dwight D. Eisenhower in the upcoming elections. They believe that Eisenhower is the best candidate to represent the views of the American Farmer Anti-Communist League.

They have been active in opposing the policies of the Democratic Party, which they believe are too pro-labor and too pro-communist. They support the Republican Party, which they believe is more in line with their views.

They are also active in supporting the American Legion and the V.F.W., which they believe are the only organizations that are truly representative of the American people.
