History Of University A Story Of Constant Struggle

Created by First Assembly in 1847, SUI Attempts To Weave Together Best Interests of State of Iowa

By MARVIN BRAVERMAN

The history of SUI is a story of a constant struggle to weave together the best interests of the state of Iowa. Each new growth meant years of struggle and waiting for completion. Each college had its history, its struggles, and its rise to the prominence it enjoys today.

The history of the university building, for example, was a story of struggle and perseverance. By the act of the first assembly of Iowa Territory in 1838, the SUI was created.

In 1847, the first building was opened in this building with 124 students, of which 41 were women. The college of liberal arts which was the beginning of the modern university building was permanently located in Iowa City.

The college of medicine opened in 1857, and in 1860, the college of law opened in this building with 54 feet by 26 feet, located near the Capitol. The college of law was later moved to that building.

Enrollment - A Long Step Forward —
For most freshmen, enrollment at a university is their largest step toward eventual independence from family support and toward real adulthood. For most of those fortunate enough to attend college, because the place where most of the growing-out process in their development would be good to alltake place in college.

Religious leaders, advisors, home owners, faculty friends, and others who will help the freshmen at ISU in achieving their right educational and moral path.

But here, for the first time in their lives, the student himself, besides his parents, will be making most of the decisions which will control a large part of their future.

This "new way of life" should be welcomed by the freshmen as an opportunity to display their independence. The opportunity should be grasped and utilized with the greatest care. The freshmen should strive to become in individual whose abilities will be a source of pride for his family, friends, home community and ISU.

College life can be considered an easy path, but ISU has for us, in a college environment and the social and civic functions of a college environment.

Fun at college doesn't preclude scholarship. It's inspiring to watch a football game. "We've won at end of semesters - one of the uphill we can set on foot - and he's also a member of the most exclusive, most grown and warm persons in our group."

What a thrill it was to see the freshmen coming in following the fall which has a wonderful adventure in store for them. We will offer an excellent place of learning - a place which can enjoy him a leader in our society. And he also will be entering a period of good fun. He will be to enter ISU with a determination to make the most of the opportunities offered him. He should come with an expectant place of learning - a place which can enjoy him a leader in our society.

He should also come with a feeling of responsibility - responsibility is to see the opportunity he has to develop on his own into a good citizen. He should come with plans to be a good representative of his family and his community.

Ezard May Be Poor Risk Against Joe

BY WHITNEY MARTIN

New York (AP) — Ezard Charles, who was generally expected to perform against Fred. Coberly was made the underdog.

"Advantage for the job is hand," said Coberly in the same 30 minute meeting. "We'll just see what we can do and how much money we can make and how much money we can make."

Charles is a 15-year-old stringing a wire on a defense line. He said that he didn't know how much he was making, but he was making more than $100 a day.

Joe, at first, probably would have had more success against an older man, but he'd still not much say anything. He said that he was making more money on the side. He was making $100 a day.

Foreign Students Live Like Americans

Many foreign students in the United States are not only attempting to achieve academic success but also experiencing American culture and traditions. This article highlights the experiences of foreign students at the University of Iowa, emphasizing their opportunities for social, cultural, and recreational activities. It also addresses the challenges they face in adjusting to a new environment and integrates their thoughts on the role of universities in fostering cultural exchange.

Scholarships

Foreign students are eligible for a variety of scholarships, including merit-based awards, need-based grants, and institutional aid. These scholarships are often available through the university, state governments, and external organizations. The availability and criteria for these scholarships can vary depending on the institution and the student's country of origin.

Social Integration

Foreign students are encouraged to participate in various social and cultural activities. Participating in these activities helps them to integrate into the university community and to gain a deeper understanding of American culture. Examples include joining student organizations, attending social events, and participating in sports.

Cultural Exchange

Universities like the University of Iowa provide opportunities for foreign students to interact with American students and faculty. This exchange not only enhances cultural understanding but also promotes personal growth and development.

Conclusion

Foreign students are an integral part of the academic and cultural fabric of universities in the United States. Their presence enriches the educational experience for all students and contributes to the diversity and vitality of the university community. By offering scholarships, social integration opportunities, and cultural exchange programs, universities can support foreign students in their academic and personal journeys.
Road Map, Patience, Sharp Eyes Needed at Registration

By DICK JACKMAN

In another week or so, 13,845 students will file through HCI's Registration Office to register for the Fall semester.

This is the largest registration in the history of the university, and the task before the Registration Office seems simple:

"The Office seems simple," said a booklet containing "Unforeseen events." "We know such things may happen to the Registration Office in a university as well as elsewhere."

"Therefore," said the Office, "we plan to be prepared for anything and everything that may happen."

The procedure is as follows:

1. Registration is held in the Registration Office on the third floor of the Student Union.
2. Students are divided into sections for the fall semester. Efficiency-minded registrators will not have any trouble with this procedure.
3. Registration will open on the first day of the semester.
4. Students are to check in at the office where they are registered.
5. Registration will continue throughout the semester.
6. Each student's file is marked with a "normal" number, and this number is used throughout the semester.

A special room, equipped with a driver, is also provided for the Region or veterans. By the end of the year, 1,845 students will leave the University, having graduated.

The University has been divided into sections for the fall semester. In each section, students are divided into groups, each group having its own section registration.

The year 1950 also marked another record in HCI registrations. Only 1,845 students were registered, the youngest in the history of the University.

Enrollment Jumped 4,000

The number in attendance has jumped from 1,400 in 1945 to 5,000 in 1950. The year 1945 saw a slight drop in the number attending.

This year saw a slight drop in the number attending.

The student body increased much more in the summer school enrollment to the year before. This year showed a slight drop, which must be worked with care and precision.

"The Office is simple," said the Office, "and this number is used throughout the semester."

SUI Political Groups Plan For Campaign

With the 1950 general election only two and one-half months away, many students have become interested in the activities of the Young Democrats and Young Republicans—as busy planning their roles as candidates.

At last count, more than 200 SUI students were members of these organizations. This represents a drop in membership of nearly 30 per cent from the peak of approximately 300 reached during the period of the 1948 election, the league now being the official student affiliate of the Democratic party.

Last spring the first formal political party days were held at the SUI campus. Many student statesmen debated in political forums and sponsored election campaigns. One of the outcomes of this electoral activity was the election of the Young Democrats and Young Republicans for the state central committees.

Student political groups at SUI have assumed the appearance of genuine political parties. They have established clubs with the close cooperation of their respective parties, and operate in competition with the Young Republicans, the state political party for students.

SUI President Virgil M. Hancher said that the political party days confirmed the statement that students are interested in political leadership.

Student members of the Young Democrats and Young Republicans have been appointed to the student central committees of the two parties, which were elected by the students at the annual party conventions. The new members of these committees will work with their respective chapters in preparing for the 1950 election.

The Young Democrats were represented on the state central committee by three delegates, and the Young Republicans by four.

WHY AN OPERATION?

Most of us have our jobs which earn our bread and butter. You may be studying to be a doctor, dentist, engineer or nurse — whatever it may be, you specialize in that work — you know better how to do it. You will be in your profession of school, by watching others, and through good, hard experience.

So it is with Paris Cleaners — we've been in the cleaning business for 35 years. We specialize in it as you the lawyer specialize in legal matters or you, the accountant, in audits and tax reports. In your profession, as well as in dry cleaning, there are methods of doing work which will get the best results — that's the know-how from years of experience and from keeping up on the most modern, up-to-date practices of dry cleaning. Also, at Paris Cleaners, professional finishers, sorters, and cleaners give your clothes meticulous care. Graduate of the National Institute of Clothing and Dyeing, the one accredited trade school and research laboratory for the industry, supervise every operation.

Check our cleaning operation with what you expect from the moment we pick up your garments to the time they are back to your closets. Each pair of trousers, blouse, skirt, coat is carefully pre-spotted — and as a further check each article is again inspected and spotted if necessary. We do not use one or two types of cleaning aids or as dry cleaning establishments do, BUT THREE different types of dry cleaning aids for the different jobs to be done. It's natural to assume you would not use the same cleaner on a greasy jacket that you would use to clean your best sport coat.

After our thorough cleaning comes pressing. Trousers are creased to razorsharpness. Each pleat in that pleated skirt is delicately creased. Nap on wool, or the pile of cardurgery cloth is brushed and raised — not matted down.

Over thirty percent of the student body have the answer and are steady Paris Cleaners customers. Compare workmanship and price, and Paris Cleaners is your Dry Cleaner, too.

Old-Time Dancing Stages Comeback With Hick Hawks

By MARTIN BRENNER

The reason for the success of this popular old-time square dance organization is the enthusiasm with which they and a group of their ilk have been gathered together to make a comeback at SUI, or on the campus.

The revival has been in the making for about a year and a half but it is only now that they have turned serious in their effort to bring back to the scene of operations.

The plan is to have a square dance on the SUI campus next month and the enthusiasm of the crowd is expected to be great.

It is understood that the group has been gathering together for some time and has been in the making for the comeback for almost a year and a half.

The enthusiasm of the crowd is expected to be great.

Westlawn Furnishes Living Quarters for SUI's Nurses

Before the December meet at UI, it seemed otiose to present a guest article in this section. It is true that the Arma is three floors of a large dormitory housing SUI's nurses. They are about 750 of them. Westlawn was completed in 1915. It is named for the area in which the building is located. The dormitory houses 480 nurses, and it is the only one of its kind in Iowa.

The dormitory consists of 120 single rooms, each with private bath, and 120 double rooms. Each floor has its own lounge, recreation room, and laboratory class room. Raff Expects Tough Conference Race

By The Sports Editor

The 1950 Iowa football team will be as Leonard Raaffensperger's top product as a high school team, since it is by far the toughest schedule the State has ever faced.

"We're going to try to rough it this year, sir," Raaffensperger said. "I expect a bigger and heavier conference this year. I personally think that this is probably the toughest schedule Iowa has ever faced."

The number of opponents is 8-3-1: "...I expect the Big Ten is going to be a 'native' conference this year."

Leonard Raaffensperger named the following backfield:

- Mason City, Des Moines, and Don A. Ginsburg, East Wheeling, W. Va.; Andy Buntz, Rockwell City; Jack Steibel, Iowaa City; and Jerry Faske, Brooklyn.

- Among the freshmen who showed up well in spring drills at the Iowa College of Physical Education are Judy Long, veteran of the Olympic swimming events the veterans returning.

"...and Rusty, the veteran of the Iowa City gymnastics team, who set a world's record. He did concentrate on swimming, however, to become a world-class swimmer."

- The Iowa City gymnastics team, which has been until this year, will be a part of the Iowa City High School team, and will be entered in the NCAA meet next year. The team will be entered in the NCAA meet next year, and will be entered in the NCAA meet next year.

SUI Experiences Major Coaching Change-Over

By The Sports Editor

During the 1950-51 sports season, Iowa experienced one of the most complete coaching change-overs in the history of university athletics.

Dr. Eddie Anderson, head football coach since 1939, started the movement when he resigned his position Jan. 25. His other contribution of the athletic head was to give him a full professorship to avoid the reasons for quitting.

After an intensive three week search he found several candidates for the new head football job, six of them being former head coaches, and a former assistant coach from the Big Ten.

Dr. Anderson held his new position for exactly one year, with the injured or an assistant coach. The only exception was when he was offered the head coaching position at the University of Southern Mississippi in 1951. Anderson's appointment was one of the most unexpected moves in Iowa football history.

Before he was at Iowa, Anderson was head football coach at the University of Michigan. The Badgers and University of Michigan have a long history of memorable football games. Anderson's coaching career at Michigan lasted from 1948 to 1950.

Wrestlers’ Chances Depend Upon Lighter Weight Classes

"We'll be as tough as last year if our new boys come through especially in the lighter weight classes," is the way the University of Iowa's veteran wrestling captain George Tesla, Perler, described the Hawkeyes' chances of placing in the 1951 NCAA wrestling championships. Tesla, captain of the University of Iowa's veteran wrestling team, was a member of the university's 1945 Olympic team. He graduated from the University of Iowa with a B.A. degree in 1948.

Freshmen Have Full Athletic Program

A full program of athletics briefly reviewed includes baseball, basketball, track and field, and swimming. The program is designed to provide freshmen with an opportunity to participate in sports.

Some New Things have been added...

Yes, we too are new in Iowa City — really new and different. Stephens opened its doors to the college man last March. In this short time we have met the needs of style-conscious SUI men.

Conveniently located just across from the campus, Stephens offers a complete selection of men's fine clothing and furnishings. Two sure-fire touchdowns in this field of stars are...
