Iowa Tops Luther, 11-7

12-Hit Attack
Rushes Hawks To 5th Win
(Special to The Daily Iowan)

CHICKAGOLAND - Again showing the form which saw them clinched their second straight class C championship, the Missouri Valley Hawks romped to a 11-7 triumph over the Luther College Norsemen yesterday afternoon.

The Hawks (10-3) were led by a six-run sixth inning and four-hits in the first. Brody Redding went six innings, striking out four, allowing only the one-run lead.

Luther, which has lost only once this year, was led by a six-run second inning and two-hits in the first. Reliever Redding went six innings, striking out four, allowing only the one-run lead.

The Hawks improved to 10-3 overall and 9-2 in Conference play, while the Norsemen dropped to 6-7 overall and 4-7 in Conference.

With the win, the Hawks clinched their second straight class C championship, their first since 1995.

The Norsemen, who had won nine in a row, fell to 6-7 overall and 4-7 in Conference.

The Hawks scored first in the fifth inning, taking a 1-0 lead. They added a run in the sixth to take a 2-0 lead.

LUTHER'S INNING - The Norsemen tied the game with a run in the bottom of the sixth, but the Hawks expanded their lead with a six-run frame.

The Norsemen scored their final run in the bottom of the seventh, but the Hawks sealed the win with a run in the eighth.

The game was played in front of a mostly-empty stands, with only a handful of fans in attendance.

The Hawks will next play against the University of Dubuque on Saturday, while the Norsemen will play against the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh on Friday.

Garner Tells Rotarians Education Is Growing

Education is the most important business, and there is no better time to talk about it than now. That was the theme of the Garner Area Chamber of Commerce luncheon, which is the second of several similar events in the county.

Gardner’s engagement to rotarians is that education is the key to a better society. It is the key to a better economy. It is the key to a better world. It is the key to a better future.

The Garner Area Chamber of Commerce plans to host a series of educational events throughout the year. The next one is scheduled for next week.

Check out our website for more information or to reserve your spot.

WGU to Broadcast Methodist Reports

A series of 15-minute news re-ports on the General Conference of the Methodist church, opened April 29 in San Francisco, will be broadcast by WGUI April 29, May 1 and May 12 at 10:15 a.m.

Reverend Charles E. Brumfield, president of the General Conference, will speak in each program, and Walter V. White, executive secretary of the church, will give a 15-minute summary of current church business.

You can listen to these reports on any of the WGUI stations in Garner.

Campaign Pays Off For Jim Frunide'l'd

In Upguy Man Contest

The Garner Area Chamber of Commerce paid off a debt of $500 to the Garner Area Methodist Church by winning the Upguy Man Contest.

The contest was held on May 1, and the Garner Area Chamber of Commerce won the title of the Upguy Man of the year.

The Garner Area Chamber of Commerce plans to use the money to help fund their upcoming events.

California Report: To Speak Here on Jews, Palestine

Dr. A. M. E. Hunter, author and minister of the First Baptist Church of Los Angeles, and known for his nationwide broadcasts of the Jewish-Christian sermon, will speak in Garner on May 3 and May 4.

Dr. Hunter will discuss the Jewish-Christian relationship and his views on the future of Palestine.
