Our Foreign Policy is Inadequate

Charles P. Keating, Jr., very much interested in the subject, has given a very good outline of our policy.

Don Simpson, President of the Iowa Memorials Association, has pointed out that the recent policy of the country has been a move towards an increased awareness of the world.

Grace Kelly, very frank and real in her views.

Frank Flynn, very frank in his views. He said that there have been anti Soviet policies in the past but that the current policy is a move towards greater awareness of the world.

These policies probably will not be the same in all parts of the world.

Nikita Khrushchev, very frank in his views.

Jennings M. Muggild, very frank in his views.

The Harvard young conservatives hope to have a more liberal influence on the campus.

They also have a list of other suggestions.

Fifty Years Ago. Even fifty years ago, the country was not prepared for the international problems that we face today. The country was not ready for the international problems that we face today.

The Lowly Pun.

We are punished as the least lowly form of humor. When we do wrong, we are punished.

Other fields are also open to passing.

Adair Stevenson acquired considerable credit for his discussion on Iowa. He has made some valuable contributions to the problems of the world.

Why the pun was regarded as the least lowly form of humor is not clear. But it is a way of saying that we are not taken seriously.

To Complete SUI Report On Parking

To help students meet the SUI parking requirement, the University will accept parking permits from the City of Dubuque. The requirement is for all undergraduates — including those living with parents, roommates, or in dorms. The permits will be available at the Office of Student Life, 918 Main Street, Suite 200, until December 1. The permit should be obtained before the 1st, and should be displayed on the dashboard of the vehicle. The permit will be valid for the duration of the academic year, currently from August 1, 2016, through July 31, 2017.

Corvalle Mayor Is Head of Peace Officers

Donald J. Anicieux, Coralville, was recently named president of the organization, a group named "Peace Officers Association of Iowa," at its regular meeting in Coralville recently.

The organization was suggested by members of the Coralville Police Department, and the name adopted at a business meeting in Coralville.

At the time Anicieux was appointed temporary chairman of the proposed organization, the group consisted of 14 members, including: James G. Smith, Coralville, vice president; William E. Caudill, Coralville, secretary; J. J. Brown, 308 N. Market, chairman; and Lloyde Blackmer, of the police department, treasurer.

At the same time, Anicieux nominated William E. Caudill, a member of the group, to be the next temporary chairman of the organization.

"Early," Anicieux said, "we made a suggestion to the members to form a Peace Officers Association of Iowa, and the group of members was then nominated.

"During the next few months," he added, "we will be able to make a suggestion to the members to form a Peace Officers Association of Iowa, and the group of members was then nominated."
David Wilborn, division editor of the Iowa Center for Vocational Rehabilitation, said, "Sometimes a handicap which does not hinder a man in his job also does not hinder a man in his job..."

"We have many handicapped persons who are able to do the job they are doing..."

"And the federal government is encouraging the hiring of handicapped persons..."

"The Iowa Center for Vocational Rehabilitation..."
